Woodlands rezoning gets third reading

After months of debate and delay, city council Tuesday night gave third reading to Bill 21/78, a bylaw to amend the zoning of Woodlands for the first phase of the Carma subdivision. Ald. Bill Shields was adamant in his opposition to the subdivision, which he said would "open a Pandora's Box" of problems for the city, because of the reduced lot sizes permitted in the zoning amendment. Third reading of the bylaw carried, with Ald. Shields, Smith and Breadner opposing.

The subject of Woodlands is still a predictable item on council agendas, however. Council gave second reading to a bylaw authorizing the imposition of offsite costs and the entry into a development agreement with Qualico Developments for that company's portion of the Woodlands area.

The bylaw to amend the present zoning of the Qualico Woodlands area also came before council. Ald. Shields said that although Qualico was a responsible developer, there were insufficient services to provide for the new subdivision. Mrs. Bakker also opposed the rezoning, saying that the area north of the east-west arterial should stay under development control. The bylaw passed third reading.

Council gave second and third reading to a bylaw permitting the closure of a portion of Sturgeon Road. The road will not be closed to through traffic however.

Council gave third reading to a bylaw to enter into a development agreement with Alberta Housing Corporation for the construction of self-contained housing units for senior citizens. Tenders for the project will be called in approximately 10 days.

A Development Control Resolution allowing the construction of a dancing school on Perron Street was approved.

A tender for the reconstruction of Bellerose Drive was awarded to Standard General Construction. The company's bid was the lowest, at $560,221.

Council approved last year's operating agreement with the St. Albert Saints hockey club. The club will appear before council regarding this year's agreement as soon as the schedules are completed.

A motion by Mayor Ronald Harvey to "support the concept of a westerly by-pass route" met with heavy weather at last Tuesday's regular council meeting, but managed to survive the political turbulence. The motion was the subject of intense scrutiny by aldermen, who put the motion through every legislative hoop allowed under Robert's Rules of Order. During the debate, which lasted over an hour, attempts were made to refer, table, delete and refer the motion to subcommittee. In addition, five separate amendments were proposed. The debate ended in the passing of Mayor Harvey's motion to support the west by-pass "in the immediate future." The vote was recorded, with Alderman Breadner, Shields and Smith opposing.

During the discussion,

A couple more days of this arks! The St. Albert area received over 100 ml. (four inches) of rain throughout the past two days with extremely violent lightning strikes during the day and night. The weather caused power blackouts in all areas of St. Albert with the exception of Braeside. At 10:30 Monday night when the downpour began the trouble for Calgary Power was just starting.

not wish to state preference for a west by-pass until they were sure the prospects of an east by-pass were eliminated. Ald. Breadner stated that until an origins and destination study was done, it could not be determined which would be the best way for commuters to access Edmonton. However, Ald. Liesbeth Bakker responded that "We are just a little city to the north of Edmonton. We can scream all we like and still not get an eastern access."

In her support of Mayor Harvey's motion, Ald. Bakker, who is the city's representative on the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission, quoted the Metropolitan Edmonton Transportation Study regarding the 1973 abandonment of the Northwest freeway. She stated that although the east by-pass was still possible, it would not link up to 127 street, but probably a future ring road. Mrs. Bakker wondered about future relations between St. Albert and Edmonton if St. Albert continues to press for an east by-pass. She also commented that she needed clear instructions on the city's preference to determine her actions at the ERPC.

Council appoints Court of Revision

In a secret ballot last Tuesday night, members of St. Albert's city council voted to appoint members of the Court of Revision. The court is appointed to hear complaints about property assessment.

Appointed to the court were Derek Brown, Ken Foster, George W. Fyfe, Ray Gibbon and Bill Veness.

Ald. Margaret Smith called for the secret ballot because of the "political nature" of the composition of the candidates for appointment.

Seniors lodge will be tendered in 10 days

M.L.A. Ernie Jamison told the Gazette this week that he was particularly pleased that necessary agreements between the city administration and the Alberta Housing Corporation were finalized last Thursday, and that tenders for the 44-bed lodge and 51 self-contained units for senior citizens, would be advertised in about 10 days. "The project has suffered a series of frustrating delays ever since it was approved in principle by the Province in 1974" said Mr. Jamison.

Agreements covering such matters as title to the land, drainage provisions, parking and the operation of the development were finally settled by the city administration, making it possible to get the project underway sooner than the October date, which drew the ire of Mayor Harvey at the July 4 meeting of council.

The mayor attended a meeting last Thursday between Mr. Dave Kassian, project manager for Alberta Housing, city engineer and other administration staff members, and no doubt expedited the completion of details and any bottlenecks delaying the construction, Mr. Jamison said.

He noted that although the land on Mission Avenue was acquired from the city for one dollar, it is estimated by Alberta Housing that the cost of pilings for the foundation on the river bank will add a quarter of a million dollars to the construction cost. No controls have been constructed on the Sturgeon River since the big flood of 1974, added the M.L.A. and extensive berming of the river bank will also be necessary in conjunction with the landscaping of the site.

On the brighter side, he concluded, seniors wishing to make application for either lodge accommodation or self-contained units, may do so anytime by contacting Mrs. Renee Laird at the city office.

Gibbon presents development ideas

- REWARD -

Terry Sargent the electrical contractor at W.D. Cuts School and the owner of the building above, has had problems with break-ins lately. He said that anyone giving information leading to the prosecution of the person(s) involved would receive $50.00. The building has been moved on three different occasions and now sits 300 yards from the work site nearest the road and the lights. This makes transporting tools and materials from the building to the site very time consuming and costly. The contractor estimates losses at $400 in wages and $200 in equipment. The most disturbing problem is that something seems to happen every night at the new school. The latest damage to his shed included a spike was hammered through a tire and walls bashed in with pieces of wood.

In his second appearance of the evening before city council, Mr. Ray Gibbon presented council with more plans for the development of a commercial property at the corner of Grandin Road and Gordon Crescent. This is the third such proposal from the former mayor, who has previously suggested that the lot be developed for single family dwellings or a "deluxe" high rise apartment building. The lot is in the process of being developed by Venture Properties Ltd.

Mr. Gibbon's most recent proposal involves the use of both the lot in question and the adjoining utility lot. He told council that in 1973, a Mr. Woodruff had proposed a design for these two lots, from which 7-8 lots could be obtained. Mr. Gibbon also suggested that the land could be developed for cluster duplexes such as at Castle Downs. He stated that either of these plans would be feasible if the city purchased the land from the developer. He cited the city's purchase of the Campbell Industrial Park and Bridge Park as precedents for such an action.

Ald. Margaret Smith pointed out that the utility lot was normally regarded as public reserve. However, Mr. Gibbon responded that the city could apply for permission to develop the lot, and said it had been done before.

"You'd rather give up the open space provided by the utility lot?", asked Ald. Smith.

"Yes," replied Mr. Gibbon, "It's better than some of the uses being proposed."

"I fail to understand the logic," interjected Ald. Liesbeth Bakker. "On the one hand you propose higher densities, but other people in Grandin Park say they are being overburdened with multiple density." She also stated she did not understand Mr. Gibbon's proposal, as it would reduce the amount of open space even further.

In regard to the city's purchase of the land, Mrs. Bakker refuted the precedents cited by Mr. Gibbon, stating that Bridge Park and the Campbell Industrial Park had been purchased for the benefit of the city as a whole. She stated she would only favour an attempt to convince the developer to develop the land as multi residential.

Mr. Ayotte stated that the land in question was not conducive to the construction of cluster duplexes, as it was too narrow.

Gibbon takes dispute to Council

A procedural dispute which arose at the last meeting of the Municipal Planning Commission between MPC Chairman Barry Breadner and ex-mayor Ray Gibbon surfaced again at Tuesday's meeting of council. The disagreement has arisen over Mr. Breadner's refusal to recognize a point of order raised by Mr. Gibbon following a discussion of the proposed commercial development at Gordon Crescent and Grandin Road. Mr. Breadner stated that the matter to which the point of order referred was no longer under discussion at the time Mr. Gibbon raised the issue.

Mr. Gibbon inquired if council had struck a procedural bylaw for the conduct of council and committees. Ald. Rod Thronson reported that the matter had been discussed and a councillor's handbook drawn up.

Discussion then ensued as to whether the council followed the procedure under Robert's Rules of Order or whether it used the Canadian Parliamentary procedure outlined in the Bournois rules of order. Mr. Gibbon said that council had passed a resolution in 1968 stating that Robert's Rules should be followed. However, Ald. Liesbeth Bakker and Ald. Thronson asserted that a resolution had passed in February of 1975 stating that the Canadian Parliamentary Rules of Order be followed, the main source for which is Bournois.

However, Mr. Gibbon stated that both sets of rules require that the chair rule on points of order and that the matter should be looked into.

Mr. Gibbon closed his presentation by saying "I wouldn't have to be wasting my time and yours even though you get paid for it and I don't if my point of order had been heard."

The MPC's final task was in a lighter vein, involving the naming of the Qualico development in Woodlands. After some discussion the designation "Pineview" was decided upon.

Colleen Gallagher wins Heritage trip

Colleen Gallagher will be heading off on an exciting tour of Canada on July 23 as one of 30 young people chosen to represent Alberta in the "Explore Your Heritage" program.

Colleen's collection of 29 photographs depicting "What I would preserve for today for museums of tomorrow" was one of the winning entries submitted to the Glenbow Museum. Students aged 13-16 years were invited to enter the contest by submitting either written essays or black and white photographs on the topic.

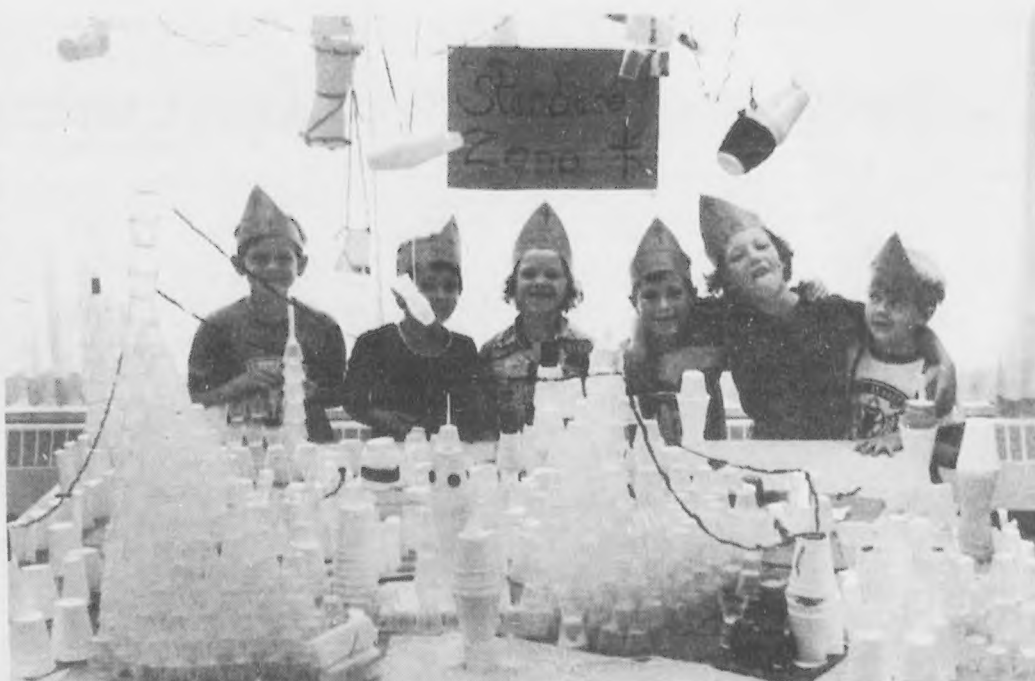

Included in Colleen's collection were photos of St. Joseph's Cathedral in Edmonton, modern hair styles, a group of aeroplanes with both old bombers and new aircraft, current fashions in clothes and jewellery, a van, plants at Muttarts Conservatory, the Legislative building, a grouping of records of her choice in music, and others.

Three hundred and seventy-seven students from all provinces have been selected for the tour, and the Alberta group will leave together from Calgary, joining up with the others as they go. They will visit Vancouver, Kamloops, Lake Louise, Calgary, Regina, Thunder Bay, Ottawa, Toronto, Quebec, Montreal, Halifax, St. John's, New Brunswick, Charlottetown, P.E.I., and Newfoundland, taking an 18-hour ferry trip to Newfoundland and flying back from there to Vancouver.

"We sure have a packed schedule" said Colleen, with many visits to museums and historical sites.

She will certainly be taking her camera and has agreed to bring some shots back for the Gazette. In fact she will have a brand new camera to try out, presented by Alberta Culture.

Colleen has taken classes in photography for two years, one at Father Jan and one at Vincent J. Maloney school and processed the photos for her entry in the school's darkroom.

Operation identification

It's no joke to return from a vacation to one's happy home, only to open the door to a house which has been burglarized. The avoidance of these situations is the purpose of Operation Identification. This summer the RCMP in St. Albert are urging citizens to mark all their valuable for identification. In a court of law it is necessary to be able to positively identify anything recovered.

Block houses are the essential key in the Operation Identification program.

These are needed in all areas of the city. For your house to be designated as a block house, all you need is an interest in your community. The block house owner is given an etching tool and a marker pen. Valuables are marked with the owner's driver's license number or social insurance number. The markers are then passed to the nearest neighbours, and so on down the line. A block house begins the marking process for about 10 houses on the block.

All this week there will be a display at Grandin Mall with high school students eager and willing to explain Operation Identification. The display details the workings of Operation Identification and informative pamphlets on the project are available.

PAWN SHOPS RESIST

Pawn shop owners in Edmonton are aiding the city police by checking all incoming merchandise to any identifiable markings. Black lights are used to check for the special markings from the marker pen. If any stolen property is found on the premises of a pawn shop, that shop is closed down by police. This helps a great deal in that the pawn shop owners are always on the lookout for stolen property.

It is hoped that all of the Grandin area will be protected by Operation Identification by the end of this summer. Also some insurance companies offer personnel trained in marking and general home security to homeowners. Insurance companies hope that more people will use this method and thereby lower the costs of homeowner's insurance. If you are interested in Operation Identification and would like more information on Operation Identification, you are urged to phone Ross Gilmore of the St. Albert detachment or Joanne Coulter. Both can be reached at 459-7721.

District 6 signs with CUPE

St. Albert Protestant Separate School District #6 and the St. Albert CUPE local signed a memorandum of agreement yesterday (July 11) which gives the local a new two year contract with built-in wage increases of eight per cent per year.

It marks the first time the Board has signed a two year agreement with the local.

Trustee Gary Hodgins, chairman of the Board's Communication Committee, told the Gazette the Board agreed to the eight per cent increase because CUPE had fallen a little behind other district locals when the AIB came into effect.

Negotiations with the ATA local are still bogged down with neither side willing to agree to the terms of the other. The teachers are apparently waiting for Edmonton Public to settle a settlement they would like to have parity with.

Shortly before school recessed for the summer the teachers voted to work to rule. If the contract negotiations are not settled before September this action will come into effect.

Games come to the playgrounds

Children attending the eight summer playgrounds in St. Albert will be participating in a Mini Commonwealth Games Day on Friday, July 14, in Lions Park.

The 15 events will all be suitable for children 6 - 12 years. (Note: if you're only six, racing with a ping-pong ball between your knees can be quite a challenge - or going through an obstacle course holding a peanut on a spoon).

The parade will be led by

Mayor Ronald Harvey and the time table is as follows:

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Games;

Day Care Society:

Provincial regulations criticized

Concern over new provincial regulations on day care prompted the St. Albert Day Care Society to appear before council's committee of the whole Monday night, to express their views.

Lloyd Sereda, Amy Olsen and Ron Garipey of the Day Care Society, and Mrs. Cheryl Oakes, director of the St. Albert Day Care Centre told members of the committee that they were concerned particularly about new regulations relating to child-staff ratios; space allotments per child; quality of food; requirements for staff training and fee structures.

Lloyd Sereda told the committee that the Society was trying to live within provincial guidelines, but said they "kept coming up short" because of the number of parents who pay at a subsidized rate, and not at full fee. However, he stressed that the Society felt it should particularly direct their service toward those needing subsidy, such as single parent families and low income families. Mr. Sereda said that the Preventative Social Services recommend now that 50 percent of parents should pay the full fee. At present, 40 percent of parents at the day care centre are subsidized. However, Mr. Sereda said that the full fee was often very hard on middle income people. Mr. Breadner suggested that the Society look at a sliding scale of provincial and municipal subsidy, which might serve to help solve the society's basic problem regarding fees: to accommodate low income families on subsidy while still maintaining services.

When asked by Mr. Thronson if there was a maximum fee that could be charged for high income families, Mr. Sereda said that it would be from $180-200. If it exceeded this amount, the high income families would leave the day care system for other day care methods, leaving largely only the subsidized parents to support the system.

TAP HERITAGE TRUST FUND?

A question from Mr. Thronson drew an impassioned response from another member of the society.

"If you had a choice, if it should be an unfortunate necessity, would you decide to increase the number of children, reduce the staff or increase the fees," inquired Mr. Thronson.

Ann Manson, who identified herself as a member of the society's board and a full fee parent, said she would reject all of these alternatives, and attempt to find another way. She said the day care program here had helped her children and that the service was invaluable.

"Our children are our Heritage," said Mrs. Manson. "I hope you will pressure the province to gain access to the Heritage Trust Fund."

In regard to the child staff ratio, Mr. Sereda told the committee that the new guidelines recommend one staff member per 13 children, which he said is inadequate with children aged three and up. The St. Albert Day Care Centre operates with a ratio of 1:11. He said that going to the provincial standard would lessen the quality of care and commented that the children are at the centre for a long time in their early life.

Ald. Roger Ayotte questioned the figure of 1:11, saying that in the school system the ratio was 1:25 or 1:30. He asked why the smaller ratios were necessary in day care centres. Mr. Sereda stated that the lower ratio was necessary due to the lower ages of the children.

"Are you setting a standard so high that the public is balking at paying?", said Mr. Ayotte. Mr. Sereda responded that the St. Albert Day Care Centre is "above the provincial standard but something less than Cadillac standard."

Mr. Sereda was also critical of space allocation standards per child under the new regulations. He said each child was allotted 2.5 square meters.

"This is an area about the size of Peter Lougheed's desk, not enough for an active child," commented Mr. Sereda.

Qualifications for teaching staff were criticized for their lack of specifics. Mr. Sereda commented that some of the regulations are written in such a manner that the janitor or other unqualified person can be acceptable as a child care worker in some instances. Also on the list of the society's grievances with the new rules are the regulations concerning food standards. Mr. Sereda and Mrs. Oakes pointed out the rules call only for "wholesome" food, and not for any adherence to nutritional guidelines, such as the Canada Food Guide. Another member of the society's board, Amy Olsen stated that this was "nebulous and unenforceable." She pointed out the responsibility of the day care centre to provide two-thirds of the child's nutritional intake, as they are there for most of their active day.

ST. MARK 8:29

And he saith unto them, but whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, thou art the Christ.

After the discussion, slide presentation and questions concluded, Mr. Sereda thanked the council for the reception of the society, which he said "was a bit warm in places," but was pleasing to the society.

It was decided by the committee that the day care society should prepare a report based on different alternatives under provincial guidelines. At Mr. Breadner's request, the report will also contain an analysis of the centre's composition and the implications of this for city funding and the day care budget.

Hold annual elections

W.I. resolutions would ban some ads

By Liz McLeod

As a result of resolutions passed at the Provincial Convention held in Olds last month the Alberta Women's Institute will petition the Canadian Government and the C.R.T.C. to ban two types of advertising from Television and Radio. These are all advertising of feminine hygiene products such as sanitary pads and tampons, and all liquor advertising.

In addition to these two resolutions the convention passed eight others, three of which dealt with health areas. The Women's Institute will request the Provincial Department of Social Services and Community Health to have patients with psychiatric problems placed in separate residence, in nursing homes, from normal patients. The AWI will also request the Provincial Government to legislate that adequately trained geriatric staff be hired at these nursing homes where patients require special geriatric care.

The Alberta Government will in addition be petitioned to require Alberta Blue Cross to supply ALL types of prosthesis and necessary body harnesses, such as the purchase of a breast form and a minimum of two surgical brassieres, upon the written order of a physician.

The Alberta Department of Municipal Affairs will be requested to consider a change and have a municipal election every year, with one-third of the offices filled at each election.

The Secretary of State, the Hon. John Roberts, House of Commons, Ottawa will be requested to change the basis of evaluating the literary merits in order to achieve a higher calibre of literary works, not offensive to the general public.

Both the Federal and Provincial governments will receive a recommendation from the AWI that they endeavour to provide legislation to safeguard the citizens interest and prevent exploitation of Canadian waters.

The Alberta Department of Education will be asked to introduce compulsory accredited courses on Credit Awareness, Budgeting Consumer Education and Family Living, geared to a successful marriage, to pupils at high school and junior college levels.

Two resolutions failed: one to promote the A.W.I. by using a larger decal crest, and one to legalize the production, importation and use of laetrile-Vitamin B17 in Canada.

The new Council of the Alberta Women's Institute was asked to study the possibility of a tour in 1979 similar to the tour held in 1976 at the National Convention. The 1979 tour would include the International Peace Gardens in Manitoba. The national convention will be held that year in Saskatoon.

ELECTIONS HELD

The new provincial council of the Alberta Women's Institute is as follows: Marie Plaizier, president, Kaye Rowbottom, 1st V.P. and Vera Olsen 2nd V.P. District directors are Elda MacLaine Pont, Aileen Kritzing, Nora Sept and Holly Hallett.

Provincial Educational Conveners are Lois McArthur of Huxley, for Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Winnie Hammerlind of Drayton Valley for Health and Home Economics; Marion Brown of Pine Lake for United Nations and Exchange Programs; Elaine Will of High River for Environment and Conservation and Norma Christie of Cochrane for Publicity.

Association asks for prison reform

Recently newspapers and other media have carried reports of a planned hunger strike by inmates of Canadian prisons who are demanding better living conditions and more prisoner rights. In light of this here is a list of recommendations on prisoner rights as submitted by the Canadian Federation of Civil Liberties and Human Rights Associations to the annual general meeting of the Provincial Attorneys-General June 29 and 30.

1. Immediate implementation of the United Nations Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners in their entirety, to which Canada is a signatory.

2. Application of the Canadian Bill of Rights to the entire prison and parole system.

3. The extension of fundamental rights of natural justice to all proceedings and administrative decisions within or without the institution, which affect the rights and privileges of the prisoners. This includes the rights to retain counsel of one's choice; the right to notice of all hearings; the right to submit evidence; the right to cross-examine witnesses; the right to full disclosure of all evidence; the right to receive written reasons rendered promptly for any decision; and the right to appeal to the courts.

4. The right for prisoners to do meaningful and productive work with equitable remuneration in compliance with all federal and provincial legislation (minimum wage standards, safety standards, unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation, etc.).

5. The right for prisoners to have full control over their income and property.

6. The right for prisoners to engage in self-initiated improvement, including access to educational facilities and resources, reading materials (including legal literature), adequate recreational opportunities and facilities.

7. The right for prisoners to exercise their religion, including access to facilities for worship.

8. The right for prisoners to have any visitors, to meet in private and to have conjugal visits.

9. The right for prisoners to choose whether to participate, without penalty, in any permissible activity outlined herein.

10. The right for prisoners to have complete freedom to communicate by telephone or mail with any party, free of censorship or inspection.

11. The right for prisoners to have access to all information which relates to them.

12. The right for prisoners to have freedom of speech, including participation in the democratic process.

13. The right for prisoners to be held in the least restrictive environment possible in relation to circumstances surrounding the offence committed, with optimal freedom of movement therein.

14. The right for prisoners to assemble and associate, including the right to establish and participate in social, political or economic groups, as well as to establish committees to represent all inmates in the decision-making process.

15. The right for prisoners to have adequate medical services and the right to refuse treatment.

16. The right to a formal grievance procedure including provision for binding arbitration.

17. The right of the public to be present, to observe, to be treated with dignity, and to participate meaningfully in the administration and decision-making process of the prison, given that the prison is a public institution.

18. The right of prisoners to free, adequate legal services.

Editor's Note:

Should the recommendations be 'taken to heart' by the Attorneys-General in Canadian prisons will at the very least be a good deal more palatable. Maybe the prisoners should be put up in luxury hotels? At least this would save any renovation costs.

What Caught Our Eye

FROM HARROWSMITH MAGAZINE WHICH CAME FIRST? THE CHICKEN OR THE EGG?

The debate has been going for as long as any of us can remember, spurred in pubs by jugs of pickled eggs and at tea parties by trays of elegant devilled oufs. No doubt people have come to blows over it - battles have been waged for less. Certainly there's been much fowl language. On the question of which came first, the world can be divided into egg people and chicken people, with as many "don't knows" as decorate any political poll. And the chickens aren't telling. They simply go on as they have ever since we first partnered with them, contentedly making eggs from chickens and chickens from eggs.

Now, if Gallus domesticus had sufficient memory (and, indeed, he is not renowned for his powers of recollection), he might have some dim picture of a time some 150 million years ago when dinosaurs roamed a steamy, fertile world, and huge flying creatures with leathery wings laid two-gallon eggs, and there lived a beast we now call Archaeopteryx.

Now, Archaeopteryx was no one's idea of the perfect barnyard animal, but, then again, there was no one with a barnyard then, let alone an idea. He had feathers, a mouth full of fierce teeth, claws on his wings, and he jumped from limb to limb of the primitive evergreens, occasionally parachuting to the ground and running along, wings flapping. Actually, he would have been hardly noticeable amongst his behemoth neighbors, for he was only crow-sized and obviously of poor breeding.

But Archaeopteryx was to have the last cackle. While huge prehistoric creatures became extinct at the turn of every evolutionary corner, Archaeopteryx's feathers (which time had fashioned from the scales of his reptile predecessors) helped him or one of his close relatives survive and become the progenitor of all modern birds.

There is a 30 million year gap, according to the paleontologists, between Archaeopteryx and the appearance of the next bird fossils. Then, for the next 100 million years, birds were shedding teeth and growing feathers and beaks in assorted colours and sizes, until Gallus gallus, clear ancestor of the present chicken, was well-established in Asia. He hasn't seen much need to evolve further.

Of course, man's tampering has changed Gallus domesticus considerably but the order of Gallinaceous fowl (turkeys, partridges, grouse and chicken) is clearly one of the oldest still surviving.

Presumably, some time in that 100-million-year evolutionary black hole, something momentous occurred. A descendant of Archaeopteryx which would not quite have been recognizable as a chicken - perhaps a bird with one remaining tooth, or a hiss instead of a cluck or an extra layer of down - one day laid an egg. Inside was the first recognizable chicken. Got that?

It's time it was settled, once and for all.

The egg came first.

The Gazette Reflects

It is certainly to be hoped that the Provincial Attorneys-General will study with considerable care the recommendations on prisoners rights submitted to them by the Canadian Federation of Civil Liberties and Human Rights Associations at a recent meeting.

Over the past decade, particularly, there has been a growing concern among the public, and also in the legal profession itself, that the justice system on this continent is becoming more cumbersome and inefficient, with a growing inability to handle the heavy case load properly. Crimes of theft, vandalism and violence are getting out of hand and people no longer feel safe on city streets, in parks, in universities and more recently in their country homes.

Judges complain that the sentences they hand down are all too often not served out in full. Police officers are constantly dealing with repeat offenders.

And now the Civil Liberties and Human Rights organizations are bringing in recommendations which would give prisoners the right to have ANY visitors, to meet in private and to have conjugal visits; would give prisoners the RIGHT to be held in the 'Least Restrictive Environment possible' in relation to circumstances surrounding their crime, with 'optimal freedom of movement'; would give prisoners the right to formal grievance procedure, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO BINDING ARBITRATION; would give prisoners the right to participate meaningfully in the DECISION-MAKING PROCESS OF THE PRISON. Other people have to pay for legal services but these recommendations would give prisoners the right to FREE, ADEQUATE legal services.

There's more (see story this issue).

It would appear that there is a concerted effort at work to make committing a crime quite acceptable behaviour for which the criminal is not really responsible. Maybe he was drunk, temporarily insane - or grew up in a poor environment - or his mother was too hard on him at age three.

It is time society and the justice system gives some thought to making a criminal accept responsibility for his actions and pay the full sentence his crime deserves.

The Attorneys-General have some homework to do.

And what could happen in Canada when we start amending our constitution?

Yvonne Bourgeois passes

Yvonne Blanche Bourgeois passed away at the age of 46 years on July 5 from injuries resulting from a vehicle accident on June 10. Taken to the University Hospital, Mrs. Bourgeois never regained consciousness following the accident. She is survived by her husband Gaston, two sons, Gilles of Morinville and Denis of St. Albert, and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Bourgeois had made her home in St. Albert since 1940 and worked for the City of St. Albert.

Attention pool owners

According to reports, a lot of children in St. Albert are spending the long hot summer, just waiting for a chance to learn to swim. The YMCA has told the Gazette that its Neighborhood Learn to Swim program is already full, with a waiting list of 20 children.

The program involves the use of private swimming pools, whose owners generously donate the use of their pools for the program. This year, four pool owners have volunteered their facilities. However, if one more pool were available, the remaining children could be accommodated.

The donation of pool facilities is done at a very little inconvenience to the owners. The children never enter the owner's home, and come "suited up" for their swimming lesson. They arrive minutes prior to the lesson and leave directly after. The pool owner's privacy is strictly respected.

If anyone would like to donate their pool for a few hours a week to the program, they may do so by calling Mike McGlynn at 452-9204. The 'Y' and local children will be glad you did!

Occupational Health Services Conference

Occupational health services in business will be the theme of a conference to be held at the Four Seasons Hotel in Edmonton, October 16 - 17. Major emphasis will centre on the functions, benefits, planning and staffing concerns in occupational health with a strong focus on the problems of small businesses.

Internationally known authorities will address the conference. Dorothy MacBride Radwanski, chief employment nursing advisor for the Employment Medical Advisory Service, is active in Britain through teaching, publishing and actual work involvement in occupational health.

Dr. R. A. Sutter received the "Health Achievement in Industry Award" this year from the American Occupational Medical Association. His occupational health clinic, founded in 1946, services 1,500 plants and businesses in the St. Louis area.

Dr. G.R.C. Atherley is Professor of Occupational Medicine at the University of Toronto, was head of the Department of Safety and Hygiene in Birmingham, England, and was responsible for directing a major project for the training of government health and safety inspectors in Britain.

Reg Baskin of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers' International Union and David Wood of Western Co-operative Fertilizers Limited will outline their views of health on the work site.

The conference, planned by the Occupational Health and Safety Division of Alberta Labour in conjunction with Grant MacEwan Community College, will be of special interest to employers, employees, unions, nurses, physicians and others who are involved in providing health services for workers. A large turnout of participants is expected in light of the proposed occupational health and safety regulations which will require provision of occupational health services in certain industries.

Local cadet travelling to Spain

Flight Sergeant Mike Parkin of St. Albert Air Cadet Squadron #533 will be leaving Friday for Spain as part of the International Air Cadet Exchange.

Mike was awarded the scholarship after passing selection boards in his own squadron and at the provincial level. The Air Cadet League of Canada chose Spain as the country which Mike and two other cadets would visit.

It is a goodwill exchange and while touring in foreign countries (30 cadets from other parts of Canada will be travelling to Britain and 25 to the United States) the cadets will be acting as 'junior ambassadors'.

All the cadets involved in the International Air Cadet Exchange will meet in Ottawa for two days briefing before leaving on their respective tours.

Mike and his comrades will land in Madrid, tour the Mediterranean, and tour the interior before heading home August 10.

F/SGT. MIKE PARKIN

It is the third scholarship for Mike who will begin his sixth and final year as a cadet next fall. Last year he was on a senior leadership course at Cold Lake and before that he attended technical training at CFB Borden, Ontario.

Five other St. Albert cadets are taking part in various scholarship programs. WO 11 R. Fecteau was awarded a flying scholarship with the Edmonton Flying Club, F/Sgt. L. Hymers will be travelling to CFB Rivers, Manitoba on a gliding scholarship; WO 11 L. Rogers will take a senior leaders course at CFB Cold Lake; LAC D. Durand will be taking technical training at CFB Borden, Ontario and LAC T. Smith will be taking a survival training course.

Citadel signs Moody to play Richard III

Wayne Fipke, General Manager of the Citadel Theatre, announced recently that Ron Moody, internationally-acclaimed star of stage and screen, has been contracted to play the part of Richard in William Shakespeare's Richard III, the second play of the Citadel's 78-79 Shochor Season.

Ron Moody became an international star through his creation of the role of Fagin in both the stage and film versions of Lionel Bart's Oliver. He started his acting career while studying for a degree in Sociology at the London School of Economics from 1948 to 1953. He was offered a part in a revue at the New Lindsay Theatre and from there, went straight into the West End in Intimacy At 8:30, For Amusement Only and For Adults Only. Moody's first musical was Leonard Bernstein's Candide...then came Oliver.

When "Oliver" was filmed in 1967, Moody was nominated for an Oscar and won five international best actor awards, including the Hollywood Golden Globe, the Variety Club of Great Britain for the Best Film Actor, 1969, and the Moscow Golden Bear. Other film credits include "The Twelve Chairs" with Mel Brooks; "Summer Holiday" and "The Flight of the Doves" with Ralph Nelson. In March, 1973, he went to Los Angeles and San Francisco to direct and star in a spectacular revival of "Oliver." In the same year he made the film "Dogpound Shuffle" with David Soul, in Canada, and gave a highly successful performance of his one-man show, 'Move Along Sideways.' It was this show which earned him rave reviews from the London critics when he played it at the Theatre Royal, Statford, for four seasons.

Mr. Moodes has made countless TV appearances, including Lord Baden Powell in "The Edwardians," "Gunsmoke," "Starsky and Hutch," "Bing Crosby's Christmas Show" and has just completed the part of LeBrun in "The Word" for CBS.

Mr. Moody will play the leading role of Richard in William Shakespeare's classic, Richard III, a play that is resplendent in the richness of its language and the sheer beauty of its poetry. And Richard III is a classic of another kind too - murder a-minute action drama. The Bard's-eye view of history's most malevolent and monstrous monarch on his bloody march to power. It's hair-raising and head-hacking in its animal vitality, filled with lechery, treachery, villainy, vice and vengeance, and promises to be great theatre under the direction of Peter Coe.

Edmonton audiences will be in for a real treat when they see this highly acclaimed actor on the Citadel's Shochor Theatre stage in Richard III. One way to guarantee yourself a seat is to own a Season Subscription. Contact the Citadel Theatre Box Office at 425-1820 for subscription information.

Sri Lanka to attend Games' cultural festival

The State Dance Ensemble of Sri Lanka will perform at Londonderry Mall which is presenting a "Salute to Asia" from July 24 to August 12. Six of Edmonton's major shopping malls have taken an area of the Commonwealth as a theme and performers and displays from countries in that region will entertain in the malls and at special Festival 78 stage pavilion located throughout the city.

The dancer in Sri Lanka is the heir to a great tradition which goes back to the arrival of the first settlers about the sixth century, B.C. A variety of dance forms have developed, now divided into two categories: low country and Kandyan, taken from the name of the Singhalese city named Kandy.

In the beginning, dancing was interwoven with ritual and temple pageantry as the religious impulse sought to find its expression in the arts. The low country dances, best exemplified by the mask dances, were performed exclusively as rituals.

In central Ceylon, under the patronage of the Kings of Kandy, Kandyan dancing attained its highest development. In those days, artists and craftsmen were organized in guilds directed by royal officials and were given land to enable them to subsist. According to ancient Ceylonese concept, artists are not special but every man is a special kind of artist. Dancers and drummers found this farming combined with festivals congenial and this is what made Kandyan dancing so expert.

Kandyan dancing cannot be called folk art; it is a dance of great beauty in which the predominant quality is masculine and heroic although it is now increasingly danced by women thus bringing feminine qualities evermore into focus. Sri Lanka is a country of fabulous jewels and the Kandyan dance costumes are among the most elaborate and beautiful in the world. The costumes are jeweled and sumptuous and the fanciful headdresses are breathtaking.

The State Dance Ensemble of Sri Lanka is accompanied by drummers and musicians on wind instruments, percussion and metal percussion.

Commonwealth Carnival is the first ever Commonwealth wide arts festival which will see over 450 performers from more than 25 nations in Edmonton from July 24 to August 12 for Festival 78, the arts and culture program of the XI Commonwealth Games.

Public listening tastes

Recently I conducted a very interesting small survey about the kind of music people listen to. The result was very educational.

When I asked a bunch of junior high school students what kind of music that turns them on the unanimous reply was "rock," and of the loud progressive type.

Further up the age level, the answer was still rock, but of diverse varieties, like jazz-rock, country rock, and top 40 type middle-of-the-road (MOR) music. The bunch that grew up as teen-agers with Billy Haley, Little Richard and the like; and matured with the latter edition of the Beatles, still dig music from the 50's (Graffiti) in addition to more recent bands like Bread, Eagles etc.

Most middle-aged couples prefer straight country western and some MOR.

I have "jammed" with some jazz bands, and found the old big-band stuff like "In the Mood," "Tuxedo Junction," "St. Louis Blues," "Chattanooga Choo Choo" still go down pretty strong.

Contemporary music as we know it today is the end product of a big melting pot, especially in North America, and it is firmly rooted in the "blues," country, and Spanish music.

Country music can be traced back to Europe and the near east, even though the instrumentation is uniquely American. To prove the point, try listening to traditional Irish and Scottish folk music and listen to blue grass "voicings."

"rock" was the off-shoot of the "blues." The blues fused with Spanish (Flamenco) music, with a little help from percussion instruments in what is now called "Salsa" (hot sauce) music.

Latin American music is not that new or young. Tito Puente, Mongo Santamaria, and Carlos Jobim were playing it for years, but Carlos Santana is the epitome of that musical idiom.

Enough digression. As they say, you are what you eat, or do, or wear or say, or listen to. If you are only used to classical music, then after a while anything that sounds remotely different, is bound to offend your ears. If country is your cup of tea, loud electric rock is out.

Some people find opera absolutely disgusting while jazz fans think non-fans are crazy.

Well what should we, as the general public do? The answer is simple. Keep an open ear and mind, try to listen to and understand all kinds of music; then maybe the pathway to understanding the human race is a little clearer.

CALIFORNIA SPANISH-STYLED HOME Plan No. P1-3-206

The exterior of this delightful family home could well have come from Southern California. Rounded arches enclosing the extensive porch, topped with a bright red ceramic-tile roof and a hacienda style double garage help to create the luxurious look of this home.

There's a large foyer through the heavy panelled doors which has a convenient guest coat closet. To the right steps lead to the sunken living room. Overhead beams, and a wood-burning fireplace carry out the rustic spanish theme. The front and back walls are covered with small-pane windows that allow a maximum of daylight to filter through. A decorative half-wall of spindles dividing the dining area from the sunken living room would create a vast spaciousness throughout the two rooms.

Sliding doors open from the dining room to an extensive rear patio. Service from the kitchen is but a step away, both for the dining room and the patio.

The large family kitchen is complete in every way, with such items as twin sinks, plenty of cupboard space, a cooking island and separate oven with adjoining counter space. The family-nook is large enough to double as a family room, and the whole forms a country-style kitchen.

Off the kitchen is the utility with washer and dryer, and the back door to the exterior, making this area ideal for a "mud" room. Close at hand is a coat-closet and the three piece vanity shower.

A stairway from the back hall leads to the unfinished basement, where future expansion can be undertaken as the budget allows. Roughed-in plumbing and fireplace make a recreation room, bedrooms with bath, an easy "do-it-yourself" project. There is plenty of room for a workshop and extra storage as well.

Luxury complete best describes the master bedroom. This suite also has sliding doors to the side porch. A walk-in closet is adjacent to the dressing room, which has a vanity and full wall mirror. The two piece ensuite completes the facilities for luxury living.

This home is ideal for almost any climate, but consideration must be given on the lot size, as the family home, with garage, measures 76 feet overall.

World birth rate going down

The world's birth rate has dropped to its lowest level in history, according to figures released by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, D.C. (Globe and Mail, April 19, 1978). The population is presently growing at the rate of 1.7% a year. The Bureau's explanation of the falling birth rate is that "massive family planning efforts in developing countries seem to be having a marked impact on population growth, as have recent record low fertility rates in developed nations."

Some areas of Europe are near, or below, zero population growth, including Britain, East and West Germany, Luxembourg and Austria. West Germany has the world's lowest birth rate (Toronto Star, April 18, 1978), and the government has become alarmed. The West German Christian Democratic Union called a conference to discuss the phenomenon in late March, with delegates from all over Western Europe. "It has gone on for at least 12 years and shows no signs of going away. The family's central place in society has been dramatically eroded," CDU parliamentarian Wolfgang Vogt told the delegates (Toronto Star, April 18, 1978). From the statistics on the world's birth rates, it appears that this is the case everywhere.

GO DOWN MOSES

MOSES: Lord I do apologize for bothering you so late in history, but they've sent me back with the commandments. The general view is that they won't do. You see, people want to worship you and all that, but they want you to keep up with the times.

GOD: Very thoughtful. You say it's the commandments that are the problem?

MOSES: Yes, Lord. It's felt they need some revision. Take the first one where you demand an exclusive allegiance. People feel this is intolerant and overdoing it.

GOD: Well, Moses, how would you feel if your wife showed you affection one day a week and ignored you the other six days?

MOSES: That's not the same thing.

GOD: Isn't it? Come, now, what relationship can survive on one day's attention in seven?

MOSES: Perhaps you have a point, Lord. Anyway, what about the second commandment? No graven images. Nothing before you. The general complaint is that you are a bit down on material things. They also say you're always asking for money in your Church.

GOD: Quite wrong, Moses. Don't forget I am the author of all material blessings. All I ask for my work is one tenth of a man's income. If a man can't give that, he's put his money before me. His money is then an idol, a graven image, a god. Carry on. What next? And don't drop those tablets because I'm not making another set.

MOSES: Well, Lord, how about swearing? What you call "taking your Name in vain."

GOD: My commandment stands. How would you feel if one of your children cursed with your name?

MOSES: Really, Lord, you keep making it so personal.

GOD: But, Moses, it is personal, isn't it?

MOSES: Well, then, a day of rest and worship. Is it necessary?

GOD: Yes, it is. My people need rest and change, fellowship with each other, and spiritual refreshment. So I set aside a special day for these things.

MOSES: Lord, you have good reasons for everything. I don't think we quite understand that.

GOD: No, that's my impression too. Let's hurry on. I'll put the questions now.

Family Education Corner

How to listen so others will talk

Submitted by
Dr. Sawak Sarju

The overused ways of responding -- Finit, Judge, etc. -- tend to cut off communication when the other person has a concern he is trying to tell us about. Job said to his friends, "Listen to what I am saying; that is all the comfort I ask from you" (Job 21:1-2). How can we listen so that others will feel more like talking?

We can:
- be still and listen. Give the other person a chance to speak. Listen to what is said as well as what is felt. Listen with eyes, ears and whole being.

- simply acknowledge we are listening by saying occasionally, "I see," "Oh," "How about that?" "Interesting."

- open the door by saying: "Tell me about it." "Sounds like you have a problem. Do you want to talk about it?" "I'm interested in hearing more." "Go on."

- "active listen" - a method of giving feedback to others about what you hear them say so that they will want to say more and be encouraged to find their own solutions to their problems.

ATTITUDES NEEDED FOR ACTIVE LISTENING

1. Want to hear. Open

- your ear
2. Want to be helpful.
3. Accept the other person's feelings (feelings are okay and they change).
4. Trust other person to find his own solutions.
5. Have time to listen.

STEPS IN ACTIVE LISTENING

1. Focus your attention.

You seem to be losing your nerve a bit. How do they feel about honoring father and mother?

MOSES: Well, some of the young object.

GOD: Please ask the person.

2. Listen for the message -- word meanings and feelings.

3. Feed back the message so sender will know what you heard. Paraphrase.

4. Listen for some word from sender that you have heard correctly -- "Yeah!" "Right." Or for a re-statement of the message if you missed or misinterpreted it.

5. Leave solution - finding to sender. Trust sender to find own answers.

young to wait until they have children. What about the sixth commandment? No killing.

MOSES: The general principle is acceptable. They just want an amendment to cover irresponsible driving which is such fun.

GOD: For whom? The driver or the victim? Number seven now. Adultery?

MOSES: Well, Lord, everybody does it. Sex is pretty much a free-for-all now. The laws seem old-fashioned, so people break them.

GOD: No Moses. They don't break the laws. The laws break them. Just look around. Very unscientific, too. You should know that one doesn't break laws. One just illustrates them. No, Moses, I recant covetousness. My commandments were given to protect and promote man's happiness, not restrict it. You see, I love men enough to want the best for them. To ask me to revise my commandments is to ask me to stop loving. You know I can't do that.

MOSES: No Lord, No you can't. So what am I to do.

GOD: Go down Moses, and say that what I have written I have written. And don't forget - tell them I wrote it because I love them.

READ ANY GOOD LABELS LATELY?

A basic guide to the Who, What, Where, When and Why of Shopping Canadian.

Why should you Shop Canadian?

Every time you buy something made in Canada, you help keep a Canadian working. You help keep Canadian money inside Canada. You help to expand and strengthen Canada's economy. When you think about it, you help yourself.

When should you Shop Canadian?

Whenever you're satisfied that the product or service you need is:
(A) made or grown in Canada and
(B) of equal or better value and quality
That's not just good advice...it's good sense.

MADE IN CANADA
FABRIQUÉ AU CANADA

What is made in Canada?

Just about everything you need to help you live the life you want.

As the saying goes, we have no bananas, but we do have Apples, Bandages, Cranes, Drills, Elevators, Furniture, Glassware, Holiday resorts, Insulation, Jewellery, Kitchen appliances, Lumber, Machinery, Newspapers, Office equipment, Potatoes, Quilts, Rope, Steel, Tires, Umbrellas, Vaccines, Wines, X-Ray equipment, Yarns, and Zippers. Everything, in other words, from A to Z.

Who should Shop Canadian?

Every day, most of us have the choice. Whether we're buying groceries for the home or supplies for business, farm or industry.

If each of us added only $10 a week to Canadian made purchases, Canada would be over 10 billion dollars better off in just one year.

Who should Shop Canadian?
You should.

Where does it say Made in Canada?

Sometimes it doesn't. Sometimes a sign says "Produce of P.E.I." Or "B.C. Apples" or "Fabrique au Quebec" or "Made in Manitoba" or "New Brunswick Sardines" or "Grown by Saskatchewan Farmers" or "A product of Alberta" or "Fresh from Newfoundland" or "Manufactured in Ontario" or "Nova Scotia Lobster."

The point is, if you take the trouble to find out, you can usually tell.

And, if it's made anywhere in the ten Provinces or the Territories, it is made in Canada.

This ad was made in Canada. Making this ad employed (for a period of time) a writer, an art director, an account executive, a media buyer, a media planner, a typesetter, an engraver, a platemaker, a traffic operator, several proofreaders, various machine operators, shippers and secretaries, publication reps, publication make-up people, not to mention all their various suppliers. Everyone of these people lives and works in Canada.

Fifteen year old Gerry Van Dyk of St. Albert was one of the riders to make the Jasper to Villeneuve bicycle trip in support of the Lutheran Association of Pastor Pilots effort to raise funds for a hangar float base at Villeneuve airport. Gerry is a member of the St. Albert Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Flying pastors take to bikes to raise funds for Villeneuve hangar

When the flying Lutheran Pastors need a service hangar to keep their five Cessnas operating they pray for help and then get busy.

It was bad news right off the bat when they reached the decision that they could raise funds for a hangar at Villeneuve airport, only to be told that "only one hangar site remains and there are four parties ahead of you on the list." Lamp members (Lutheran Association of Missionaries and Pilots) prayed in their office, requesting their Wing and Prayer partners to join them in asking God to work things out. Dennis Riley a member of Lamp's Flying Operations went to the Department of Transport's Airport Marketing Branch to explain the situation and within 24 hours a call came in to say that two previously restricted lots had been made available.

The next step was raising funds - an estimated $50,000 for the hangar and a bike-a-thon was organized from Jasper to the Villeneuve Airport. Pilot-Pastors and supporters of Lamp got busy with pledges - took their bikes by train to Jasper and by the time they reached Villeneuve on Friday, after a four-day trek, more than $50,000 had been raised. In fact Executive Director Les Stahlke feels the total pledges could swell to about $80,000.

The new 14 by 18 metre hangar will house three of the five Cessnas flown by the missionary pastors and Lamp's full time engineer will use it for his workshop.

The Lamp project to minister to communities in the northern areas of Western Canada was begun by Pastor Stahlke in 1970 in Edmonton. The five flying pastors involved rely heavily on Christian lay people whom they assist to find jobs in small northern centres where the In-Service Christians support missionary services the year around, working as a team with the pastor who visits the centre regularly.

Some provide leadership for Sunday School or Bible study groups and various community entertainment and services including Christian films. Working with neighbors, patients, young people, and friends they make as they go along, the lay Christians develop their own ministry, largely on a one-to-one basis in many cases.

Lamp has spread from their first base in Edmonton to bases in High Level, Yellowknife, LaRonge in Saskatchewan and Manitowadge in Northern Ontario, and plans are presently underway to build a base at Thompson to serve Northern Manitoba centres.

Lamp is approved by the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, The Lutheran Church in America (Canada Section) and the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Canada. None of these officially supports the Lamp ministry financially, but about 95 percent of the financial support comes through Lutheran individuals and auxiliary agencies.

The number of Lamp-affiliated Christians-In-Service now includes doctors, nurses, housewives, teachers, Indian Affairs workers, farmers and carpenters at the High Level base, which covers 10 other communities, such as Rainbow Lake and Zama City. Pastor Gerry Mitchinson flies to all these centres and his wife Doreen is a medical doctor, providing a team ministry. Doreen has been known to deliver three babies before breakfast and two after and then see another 40 patients that day.

A minimum of 250 flying hours is a minimum qualification for Lamp pastors and presently all five flying pastors have at least 1,000 hours in the air. For this missionary work Lamp tries to find interested ministers with several years experience.

The hangar at Villeneuve Airport which the Lutheran Association of Missionaries and Pilots build and use will undoubtedly be one of interest to visitors to the airport.

Balloon race at Calgary Stampede

The air will literally be filled with color during the 1978 Calgary Exhibition and Stampede, which began Friday.

The Calgary Exhibition and Stampede, in association with Molson's Alberta Breweries Ltd., will introduce the "Great Calgary Stampede Balloon Race."

The race, which will have one "hare" balloon chased by several other balloons, will lift off each evening, weather permitting, at approximately 7:25 p.m. in front of the Grandstand.

The idea met with instant success with the growing number of balloonists in Calgary and throughout Canada. Because of space limitations, entries have been limited to 10 plus the Hare balloon for this year, with five balloons chasing the hare balloon each evening.

One Saturday, July 15, however, all 11 balloons will be in the air.

The object of the race is to follow the path of the Hare balloon, which takes off about 10 minutes before the race begins, as closely as possible. The balloonist dropping a special marker closest to the spot where the Hare balloon has landed wins top money for the day and accumulates the most points towards the overall championship.

In addition to competing for prize money, the champion pilot receives the Lethbridge Brewery Award, a beautiful gold and silver belt buckle.

St. Albert Juniors making a name in tennis

St. Albert is becoming a name to be reckoned with in junior tennis competition and two local players were finalists in the boys singles 18 and under event at the

Alberta Junior Championships held Saturday at the Royal Glenora Club in Edmonton. Steve Kirk defeated Tony Morris in the best of three sets final by a two-one margin, but Tony was his toughest competition of the day.

Tony then teamed up with Brad Royal of Calgary in the boys doubles 18 and under and they made it to the finals but lost out to a strong pair from Regina.

Ashley Sage, also of St. Albert teamed with Darrel Smith of Mayfield for the boys doubles, under 14. They won the event after making a strong come-back in the third set. Ashley went on to win the consolation singles in boys under 14, defeating his doubles partner in a long drawn out final.

All three St. Albert players, along with about 20 other young people have qualified for the Prairie Regional Championships being played in Winnipeg from July 17 to 21.

Kirk and Morris left yesterday for Regina to take in the Saskatchewan Provincial Junior Championships which run from the 12th to 16th, so that they will go directly to the Regionals from Regina. They will play in three events in both centres: singles, doubles and mixed 18 and under. In the mixed championships they are teamed with two girls from the Mayfield Club in Edmonton.

Kirk played in the regionals three years ago - losing out in the quarter finals boys under 14. Last year the regionals were in Edmonton and he lost in the semi-finals singles but won the doubles.

Now 16 Steve Kirk made his first appearance on a court at the age of four, under the watchful eye of his father, Dave, an ardent tennis player. With the advent of the Mayfield complex and the opportunity to play the year around opportunities for competitive play were greatly enhanced. Both Steve and Tony (18), coached by Paul Willey of the Mayfield, play four or more times every week the year around - usually against each other. They play in senior tournaments and Steve won a seniors event in Calgary this year.

"Competition is about the same in the seniors tournaments as in the regionals," the boys said - but there is more pressure in the regionals. After all we're not expected to win in senior competition." They are expecting strong competition in the regionals - particularly from Ontario - but also from B.C. Players are usually seeded but a lot can depend on the draw they added.

Tennis Club holds tourney

With the weatherman co-operating beautifully, the St. Albert Tennis Club held an enjoyable tournament Canada Day weekend.

Close to 50 avid tennis nuts from the club battled out their matches in the blazing heat. Outside of a few burned noses and one case of sunstroke there were no serious casualties.

Coming out on top in the mixed singles (Judy Wood entered the men's event) was Frank Walls, who defeated Reiner Sattler 6-2, 6-3 in the final. Barb Chan came out on top in ladies singles with a 6-2, 6-4 win over Bonnie Childs.

Marg O'Donnell, with a little help from Dave Rudge, took the mixed doubles event beating out Ken Sharp and Joan Gates 7-6, 6-1. Brothers-in-law Lorne Wood and Frank Walls cleaned up in mens doubles with a 6-3, 7-6 win over Dave Hartt and Ron Riley. (You can be sure Hartt and Riley will be looking for revenge on that one).

Ladies doubles was scrapped because of a lack of entries.

Everyone had a good time including those who played a consolation round following first-round losses.

New York Steak House and The Settlement donated prizes and Norma Begley kept the lemonade and iced tea flowing.

Everyone is looking forward to the next tournament planned for August.

The St. Albert Tennis Club will be holding a Novelty Doubles Night Friday, July 14, 1978 - commencing 6:45 p.m. at the Mission Tennis Courts. All members welcome to come and join in this fun evening.

Playboys slaughter opponents in Calahoo fastball tournament

Stony Plain Playboys put on an awesome hitting display during their four games in the annual Calahoo Chiefs fastball tournament. They cracked out 19 home runs in their complete domination of every game.

The Playboys took out Custom Printers, LBH Builders, and Spruce Grove KC's before giving the hometown Calahoo Chiefs a 11 - 2 thumping in the final game to win the $400 first place prize money.

Murray Kulak was the hitting hero for the winners as he cracked out six home runs in the tournament while team-mates Jim Millar, Dennis Zutz, Ken Palmer, Vic Boychuk, Dennis Tebay, Wilf McGinn and Gerald McGinn all had four baggers as well.

In the "B" event Custom Printers beat Ernie's Transfer in the final game to take home $250.00.

In the five team ladies event the hometown Calahoo Erins finished in second place in the round robin affair with their only loss being an 11 - 8 decision to the winning Sir International Stellers.

Erins beat the Hollander Harems 10 - 6, Calahoo Flames 15 - 9 and Cyclone Electric by a 15 - 14 score.

The biggest surprise of the tournament was the excellent play of the Calahoo Flames Please Turn to Page 20

Royals hold three point lead in NCABL

Rochester Royals shut out the Vimy Blues Thursday, July 6 and now have a slim three point lead over second place Barrhead Broncos who maintained their runner-up spot with a 7 - 3 win over ninth place Legal Pontiacs.

Royals have lost only one game in 11 starts this season while the Broncos have only dropped two in 10 games.

Bon Accord Tigers continued their mid-season surge and moved into third place with a 7 - 6 win over Westlock Red Lions who are now in fourth, one point back.

Morinville Manufacturers played a four point game with the Alexander Braves and won by a close 3 - 2 score. They are now only three points behind sixth place Vimy Blues.

The Braves are the only North Central Alberta Baseball League team without a win while the Legal Pontiacs are only two points ahead of them with a single win in 11 games.

The balloting for the most valuable player award has Dwaine Jolliffe of the Westlock Red Lions in first place with 21 points just three ahead of Rudy Moscaluk of the Waskatenau Chiefs and Moe Fagnan of the Vimy Blues both tied at 18. Dale Lewis of Bon Accord Tigers is in third spot with 16 followed by Gary Huculak of Please Turn to Page 20

Steven Kirk, left and Tony Morris were on a steady diet of tennis before leaving yesterday to take in the Saskatchewan Junior Provincials followed immediately by the Prairie Regionals in Winnipeg. The two finalists in the Alberta Provincials both play an 'all court' game, attacking the balls when they're short, and Steve enjoys serve and volley action.

NEW TRACK RECORD FOR STOCKERS ... ALMOST

Joe Eupperon in a 72 Chevelle, established a new stock car track record last Wednesday at Cobra Raceway. The 283 C.I. powered Chevelle, turned in a 15:37 for the quarter mile oval. After careful inspection of Joe's car, illegal control arms were found, thus erasing the record. Incidentally, the hollow control arms are legal for the Western Canadian Stock Car Driving Championships but not the Barbers Wheel House series. Dan Kynock of Spruce Grove won the Super Modified feature, but had stiff competition from Larry Flemming until the latter stages of the race when Larry was unable to get around a slower car in the 25 lap event. The feature event for the stockers, The Happy Sound 500, was won by Ron King. In trophy dashes: Fast Stock - Gerry Emond, Slow Stock - Wayne Lotnick and Super Modified - Don Kynock. Winning this years Powder Puff Derby, Marion Anderson of Edmonton.

Three hockey rep teams get sponsors

St. Albert's representative hockey teams announced today three sponsorships for their minor hockey teams. Ron Rodgson Pontiac, St. Albert's new car and truck dealership on the St. Albert Trail, has announced it will sponsor the Juvenile "A" team for the 1978-79 hockey season. RMC Sports has also confirmed it will again sponsor the Pee wee "B" team, while Nu-West Development Construction Ltd., is returning for still another year as sponsors for the Nu-West Canadians Pee wee "A" team.

Several other St. Albert businesses are also being contacted for possible sponsorship, as the representative division attempts to wrap up all sponsorships by the end of July.

The division has also secured ice for early practices at three rinks, and announcements for tryouts at all levels will be made in August.

Eight teams are being sponsored for the 1978-79 season, two in each of the pee wee, bantam, midget and juvenile levels. All eight teams will play in both a league and provincial play offs.

The representative division is also seeking coaches for the forthcoming season. Some coaches will be appointed later this week, with an announcement of the successful candidates in next week's Gazette.

However there is still an urgent need for coaches at both midget and juvenile levels.

The representative division is attempting to have all coaches announced by August 1st so plans can be made for ice rental, tournaments and possible trips. Consideration is being given to sending at least one team to Quebec this year.

In addition the division is considering sponsoring a major invitational bantam tournament in St. Albert either this Christmas or at the Easter break.

Teams from throughout western Canada would likely be invited.

Individuals interested in coaching are asked to contact Doug McConachie at 458-0907 as soon as possible. A written resume of qualifications will be required.

All eight teams have leagues to play in and final preparations are being made to schedules.

The representative division has also announced it will be conducting a major raffle during the upcoming season, to assist in the financing of the eight teams -- calculated at $50,000.

The division will be raffling off two trips for two, plus $1,000 cash for each winner, to locations anywhere in Air Canada and CP Air's world. Tickets are expected to go on sale in mid-August at several downtown locations. In addition ticket sales will be held in several Edmonton shopping centres throughout the year.

Calahoo Erin's Ladies Fastball team finished in second place in the annual Calahoo Sports Association Fastball Tournament last weekend, with their only loss coming as a result of a 11-8 loss to the Sir Stellers. Erin star, Charlene Berube, fouls one off as Calahoo junior catcher, Marnie Horn, looks on.

Rosberg takes second Labatt's race

The Grand Prix Labatt de Quebec was likely one of the luckiest wins Keke Rosberg will ever have, but he's leading the Labatt Championship Series, and he'll take the victories any way he can get them.

Rosberg made it two wins in a row as he swept to a 16.88 second victory over Price Cobb of Dallas, Texas in the third round of the Labatt Championship Series, held at the 2.203 km street circuit in the exposition grounds of Quebec City.

But if Bobby Rahal of Greenwich, Connecticut hadn't run into problems, Rosberg and his Excite Chevron would have been doomed to second place.

Rahal had qualified his Morgan Racing Ralt RT1 on the pole, just nosing out Price Cobb's Direct Film March 78B, the Ralt RT1 of Kevin Cogan from Redondo Beach, Cal. and Rosberg after an exciting battle in the last half hour of qualifying.

Once the green flag fell for the 80 lap 160 km race, it was a different story. Rahal simply drove away from the opposition. "I tried to stay close to him, but he built up a lead whenever we would come into traffic and lap slower cars," Rosberg said after the race.

By the halfway point, Rahal's advantage over the Finn was just under 10 seconds and he appeared set to take his first Formula Atlantic win of the 1978 season.

Then Rahal came up to lap a slower car on lap 43. He moved inside the car at the tight left hand second corner, then the other car seemed to move over towards Rahal. He locked up his brakes and slid across the track, damaging the nose against the concrete retaining wall. That was only a minor problem however.

"I had lost the use of the clutch on the fourth lap of the race," Rahal explained, "so once I was stopped, there was no way I could get it back into gear and get going."

There was no choice but retirement, handing the lead to Rosberg. He built his lead over Cobb to 30 seconds at one point before easing off in the final laps.

Third went to Long Beach winner Howdy Holmes of Ann Arbor, Mich. in his Jiffy Mixes March 78B, followed by Cogan. Only these four drivers completed the full race distance.

Fifth, one lap down was Chip Mead's Ralt RT1 from Dayton, Ohio, a lap in front of three time Canadian champion Bill Brack of Toronto in his March 78B. Brack had initially run with Holmes and some others but tired late in the race and fell back.

With the win, Rosberg moves into the lead of the Ford driver point standings. His total of 60 is just two ahead of Holmes, who has scored points in all three races to date. Cogan holds third with 49, followed by Cobb with 43 and Jeff Wood of Studio City, Cal., who didn't finish the Quebec City. He retired with head gasket problems while holding third on lap 53, and still has 39 points.

The next Labatt Championship Series race will be Lime Rock, Connecticut on July 4, 1978.

First Senior Age Division Aquatic Competition

What do film star and former Olympic swimmer Buster Crabbe; Lake Ontario conqueror Ted Roach; retired ex-mayor of Mimico Amos Waites and his grandson, Bruce have in common?

Though Waites is 82, Crabbe 70, Roach 52 and Bruce Waites 25, they'll all be taking part in the first international aquatics meet for adults over 25.

The First Senior Age Aquatic Competition will take place at the Etobicoke Olympium and the CNE Lakefront from August 20 to 31, according to William Hawes, representing Crush International Limited, a major sponsor of the event, and host at a press conference today.

Mr. Hawes praised the work of the competition's organizing committee working under the auspices of the Canadian Aquatic Federation for establishing the event with Canada as the host nation. He said in the past other nations had attempted to organize a similar event, but had been unsuccessful.

Expected to draw 2,000

competitors from more than 16 countries in the world, the event is sanctioned by and operates under the rules of the Canadian Aquatic Federation and the International Aquatic Federation (FINA).

Senior aquatics is divided into five and 10 year age groups, depending on the Lytwyn strikes again!

Last Wednesday the LBH Builders travelled to Onoway for a 6 to 3 victory over the Royals. Gene Lytwyn, on the mound, performed to his usual degree of excellence, striking out 11 batters and allowing only five hits.

For his outstanding efforts at the plate, Lenny Grew received the honors of offensive star. Gene Lytwyn drew defensive star.

Monday's game was rained out at the bottom of the third inning. LBH Builders leading Calahoo Chiefs 2 to 1.

Today's game features LBH Builders matched against the St. Albert A's at the new Meadowview Diamonds at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to come and view some excellent fastball action!

Tigers slip to third spot

Edmonton Tigers, early leaders in the Alberta Major Baseball League, have found things a little tough lately. As a result they have dropped five in a row and now find themselves in third place, five games behind league leading Barrhead Blue Jays and one behind second place Red Deer Flyers.

Lac La Biche Dodgers and Stony Plain Dusters are tied for fourth spot just 1/2 game behind the Tigers.

Only the top four teams advance to the playoffs, and only the top three will be considered for the annual Lacombe Lions tournament which will be coming up shortly.

event and according to Baron H. Drobig, organizing chairman, the oldest competitor registered to date is aged 83 years. She is Nellie Brown of Washington, D.C., U.S.A.

Says Drobig, "While speed swimming events will take up the lion's share of the 11-day competition, synchronized swimming, diving, water polo and long distance swimming also play important roles. In fact, it's the first time that these five water sports have been combined in one senior international event."

The objective of senior aquatics, says Drobig, is fitness, competition and fellowship. He added that though many competitors registered in the event are ex-champions, a good proportion of the entrants have never swum competitively before becoming involved with a senior aquatics program on a local level.

A symposium dealing with the physiological, psychological and sociological aspects of senior athletes will be held during the meet, moderated by Dr. Kevin Jones, a York University, associate professor of physical education and a member of the event's organizing committee.

Entry forms may be obtained by writing 1st Senior Aquatic Competition, Canada - 1978, Box 300, Station "M", Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M6S 4T8 or calling Ted Roach at (416) 275-1808. Entries close on July 18, 1978.

Eleven year old Todd Connelly, of 19 Bernard Road, shot a hole-in-one over the weekend at the Golden West Golf Course. Todd, using a number four iron, cleared the par three, 185 yards, fourteenth hole to enter a one stroke on the scorecard. Todd ended the day for a 18 hole total of 97 but fared much better at the G.W.G. Pee-Wee Tournament with a round of 87 and a fourth place finish.

SUPER QUEEN

Marjola Muellner (20), was last Wednesday's Trophy Queen at Cobra Raceway. Cobra features a new Queen at each race meet.

Story of the week

It seems that the umpire was examining the field following a suspension of play due to a violent rainstorm. The sky was still overcast and rain still threatened.

The manager of one of the teams approached the umpire and asked "What do you think? ... Will we be able to play?"

"I really don't know, your guess is as good as mine," replied the umpire, after again looking at the sky.

With a final retort, the manager grinned and said: "I know it is, but this is the first time that you ever admitted it."

8 team Invitational Baseball Tournament set for next Saturday and Sunday

Eight of Alberta's finest midget baseball aggregations are entered in St. Albert's first annual midget baseball tournament with action expected to get underway Saturday morning at 9 a.m. Opening ceremonies are planned to get the two-day meeting off to a good start.

At this point it is difficult to pick pre-tournament favorites but, at least four contingents are rated "tough to beat." A favorite from the Edmonton area - winners of the 1978 Alexis tournament in June are the Kensington Midgets. The Barrhead County Kings, 1978 Northwest league champs although in a batting slump, are still rated among the best.

In the dark horse category would have to be the Edmonton Blue Jays, Wanham's Midgets from the Peace River country, along with the Camrose Midgets.

Three other ball clubs, known for their explosive-ness are Spruce Grove, finalists in the consolation bracket at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan and the two host teams, St. Albert Saints and the St. Albert Cardinals.

Spokesman for the tournament organizers, Ben Tooth, indicated that a total of $275 in prize money will be shared among the first and second place winners on the "A" side of the double knockout affair and the team that captures first place on the "B" side.

In order to defray the expenses of this large undertaking, admission will be charged. Adults will pay $1 per day and anyone under the age of 16 will be charged 50 cents. It is hoped that coaches of SAMBA house league teams will consider attending at least part of the tournament.

Every effort will be made to complete the tournament on schedule. This will involve a time-limit for each game in order for games to start as close to the scheduled time as possible. Other tournament rules and regulations were decided last night in a meeting with Tooth and co-organizers, Frank Galbraith, Art Rechlo and Art Balog.

A concession stand, provided by the SAMBA Ladies Auxiliary (Midget Branch), will be open for hungry appetites and will run the full length of the tournament.

Pairings are as follows:

SATURDAY*JULY 15

9 a.m. Kensington vs Spruce Grove; 11:30 a.m. St. Albert Cards vs Edmonton Blue Jays; 2 p.m. St. Albert Willowbrook Saints vs Barrhead; 4:30 p.m. Wanham Astros vs Camrose.

SUNDAY, JULY 16

9 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. - Semi-finals. B side final - 4:30; A side final - 7 p.m.

SAMBA trouble in Camrose

Are the St. Albert Cardinals soreheads?

• a sour-grapes[?] story
as told by Uncle Rick

Most folks would say that if you enter a tournament - lose your first game and then "go home" - you're a sorehead, you can't take it, sour grapes, etc. That's exactly what happened to the St. Albert Midget Cardinals in Camrose Saturday.

Hold on! Before you form any lasting impressions, let's look at the whole picture:

After the baseball-playing Cardinals entered the threeply well-known Camrose "Fun and Olympic Baseball Tournament" - set for Saturday and Sunday, they were notified by the tournament director of their first encounter, Friday night at 7 p.m. against the host club, Camrose. This was agreeable and plans were set in motion.

Twenty minutes before leaving for the contest, they were informed the game was cancelled on account of rain. The tournament director then informed the coaches Art(s) Rechlo and Balog to be at the tournament site ready to play - anytime between 12:30 p.m. and 3 p.m. The Cardinals, all 10 players with their coaches arrived on time, before 12 noon.

An air of uncertainty existed almost immediately at this point. Rumors were flying that the Camrose Midget entry hadn't been advised of the change and were unable to field a full squad during the hours mentioned. Camrose coaches admitted later they were down to nine players, still enough for a game.

When the St. Albert coaches attempted to arrange something suitable for their get-together with the home club, the tournament director expressed the opinion to "go ahead and pull out if you don't like it." After taking care of his own bantam division team, the tournament "boss" finally set 5 p.m. as the time of the Camrose-St. Albert match.

St. Albert also had a regular game set for 7 p.m. - the same day so activities were running mighty close.

One hitch developed. The 3 o'clock Camrose-Provost game wasn't completed until 6 p.m. Camrose and St. Albert agreed to play, shortly after this, but no umpires were available. After another delay, the tournament director then rescheduled Saskatoon and Brooks to meet in the 7 p.m. spot - in place of St. Albert and Merritt, B.C. The T.D. informed the gathering of fans the Merritt-St. Albert affair would start at 8:15 p.m. as he expected the other teams to complete their game by 8 p.m.

In the meantime, instead of adhering to the rescheduled 9 a.m. Sunday morning game between Camrose and St. Albert, coaches of Camrose, Merritt, and St. Albert decided on moving that tilt to 11 a.m. and left Merritt and Camrose play at 9 a.m. The St. Albert coaches didn't know what was coming ...

True to form, the Saskatoon-Brooks contest was over in time to allow St. Albert's game to begin - shortly before 9 p.m. Merritt was leading 4 - 2 as the sun dropped below the horizon and baseballs became hard to retrieve. It was suggested the game be allowed to continue - under the lights and cramped confines of the Camrose Merchant's softball park.

After reassembling bats, players, fans, umpires, and the one (1) game ball left, the game proceeded - the third inning of play - at 10:30 p.m. The British Columbia team found the short fences (for baseball) to their liking and were leading 8 - 2 at the end of four innings of baseball.

The fifth frame found Merritt with a man on base. A bit more action and the runner rounded third and streaked for home. Both St. Albert coaches noticed the base runner had not touched third base and called time for an appeal. Neither the base umpire or plate umpire had seen the infraction so the run was allowed to score. The tournament director rushed from the wings to announce the tournament's seven-run advantage rule was in effect and the game was officially over, Merritt winning 9 - 2.

An agreement between both coaching staffs was reached. The game then continued to the end with the final score, 9 - 4 Merritt.

Since the hour was midnight, it was decided among the coaching staff and players to try to gain overnight accommodations. It was too late, not a motel or hotel in Camrose could be found. It was a disillusioned, disenchanted and frustrated group of ball players who made their way back to St. Albert to arrive by 1:30 a.m. after an eventful (or uneventful) day in Camrose.

Are they "soreheads"? Are they? Maybe their heads are SORE because of thinking about a game that never came to pass as promised - may be they're SORE because of not knowing when and IF they were going to play. Perhaps the word "sorehead" might be changed to "sorehands" - SORE from sitting on them all day watching the other midget teams play two games each. Is it any wonder they didn't feel up to going back the next day? Hang your head in shame tournament director ... even an "I'm sorry" would have helped ...

Are they SOREHEADS? If you've been kind enough to read this far ... you be the judge ...

Travel grants increased

A substantial increase in ABA travel assistance was approved at the recent executive committee meeting in St. Albert.

The four provincial champions travelling outside Alberta this season will each receive a grant of $1,200.00.

This will include Junior (National Championships in Vancouver, B.C.); Senior Intermediate (Western Canada playdowns in Nanaimo, B.C.) Midget (Western finals in Winnipeg), and Bantam "A"

(Western Canada Championships in Port Coquitlam, B.C.).

In addition, a $3,100 pool will be distributed on a mileage basis to teams travelling within the province to inter-zone and provincial finals. To qualify for this assistance, a team must travel more than 75 miles (one way) to a playoff site.

"We believe our program of travel assistance is the most generous of any amateur sport in Alberta," says ABA President Bob O'Brien, of Barrhead. "The grants were increased this year because the Alberta Baseball Association recognizes the growing burden of travelling costs."

Mr. O'Brien said the grant structure will be further reviewed at a special planning seminar this fall.

SAMBA - Bat Time Stories

as told by Uncle Rick
With a basement full of water, we're have some difficulty getting our thoughts straight on the subject of baseball ... if you give us a moment maybe we can start bailing in all directions

MELTON'S MIGHTY MITES MANGLE SEALS FOR MOSQUITO "A" MANTLE

Some may call it an "upset" - others called it "inevitable" ... whatever you call it - Melton's Mighty Mites won the Mosquito "A" playoff championship outplashing Coach Bruce McGlasham's Safeway Seals in the final game - a week ago Tuesday - to win the series in two straight games. According to Melton's mentor Keith Stephens, it was a total team effort on the part of the Mighty Mites. Outstanding in the hitting department were Rick Wright, Jason Cunningham, and Davey Ross. Their timely blows helped punch 15 runs across in the final game to 13 for the Seals.

Winning chucker in the final battle was Brad Beard who had an excellent playoff series. Keith also singled out pitcher Kevin Welch. Coming into the deciding game as reliever when Beard had thrown his allotted six frames, Welch allowed no runs or hits and completed a double play for the final two outs with the tying runs on base. The Mites, as reported previously, took the first tangle 15 - 4.

Congratulations to a fine coaching staff - Keith Stephens, Don Beard and Colin Edgett. Also, the same to Bruce McGlasham and his helpers. Bruce's Seals not only came first in regular season first half action but also repeated in first place in the season's second action. Hold your head high, Bruce.

BEAVER'S BUCKET DO WELL IN CAMROSE

Trailer loads of Beaver baseball supporters travelled to Camrose during the past weekend and were very happy with the results.

Coach Vic Hogan's Bucket Brigade Cubs came up with an early Saturday morning win over the Camrose Beavers by a score of 8 - 1. Kent Lafabvre started and won the tilt for St. Albert. Dean Williams was effective in relief.

The next ball game, played Saturday afternoon found Lafabvre again on the starting hill. Running into control problems and soft fielding errors, Kent gave way to Don Carlson who finished the fray. Their opponents, from Kamloops,

B.C., locked up the game with a seven-inning uprising. The Bucket Boys stayed in the game to the end. Even in the seventh inning the tying runs were on base at the third out. Kamloops won 13 - 11.

Dean Williams was the winning flinger in St. Albert's 6 - 2 triumph over Provost. This is a sign of better times ahead as Provost always rates among the better teams in Alberta. Kamloops won the Beaver championship stomping Calgary.

Playoffs loom ahead for Hogan's Heroes as the Bucket-Cubs head for a double round-robin tourney at St. Francis near Warburg. Joining St. Albert and the host team will be Drayton Valley. Also contending this weekend at Barrhead will be Spruce Grove and Riviere Qui Barre. Winners of both series play the following weekend.

BANTAMS BATTER BROOKS BUT LOSE CAMROSE TOURNEY

Link Hardware's Bantam Kings ended the Camrose Fun and Olympic Baseball tourney on a winning note - plunging into Brooks 23 - 2 behind starter Terry Yost. However, two games before that one found the Bantams on the losing end but not by far. Kamloops came from behind in the early moments of the initial Saturday morning start to win 8 - 2. Too many Link-Kings left on base proved a detriment to St. Albert. Blaine Malanchen took the loss.

Camrose's Cubs barely squeaked by St. Albert in the second time around. Tom Shipanoff and Terry Yost saw duty on the hill in a losing cause 14 - 13. Camrose went on to defeat Kamloops to gain the finals. Red Deer ran past the host-nine 15 - 5 when Camrose ran out of pitching.

Coach Norm Heemeryck's charges will venture to Provost next weekend for two days of baseball and camping. Good luck, "Kings" ...

FROM THE BENCH ...

The Camrose Park and Recreation Department deserves a big hand for the fine condition of their baseball-fastball complex. It's even better than Stettler's - also a gem of a plant for baseball, etc. The Beaver and Bantam Division's of the two-day meeting went very smoothly.

It's too bad there wasn't time left over for the midgets.

As we start bailing out the basement, may we add "Diamonds are a boy's best friend" - especially when EVERYONE is having fun, eh Al Jackson?

Peewee provincial playoffs in Calahoo this weekend

The girls provincial peewee "B" playoffs will be held in the sports-minded community of Calahoo this weekend with games being played on both Saturday and Sunday.

All participating teams are not known at press time, but it has been confirmed that Calahoo will play Edmonton at 9 a.m. Saturday morning to start the round-robin double knockout tournament.

Calgary will take on either Red Deer or Stettler at 11 a.m. and at 3 p.m. it will be Lethbridge and Fort McMurray meeting.

There is a possibility that Bow Island will also be represented but that has not been confirmed as yet.

Calahoo finished second in the provincial "A" final last year and are hoping to take it all this time out.

Coach Emile Berube was hoping to get a number of practices in this week but has run into a little rain problem which he hopes to solve in a day or so.

Concession stands will be open both days and girls fastball fans will be able to watch some excellent action.

Motor size and your boat

Seventh in a series of articles by RCMP K Division on boating safety and regulations. The police are concerned with the fact that 48 percent of all Alberta drownings investigated in 1977 involved small vessels. There is a myth presently with us which states that water skiers have the right of way over all other vessels. The rules of right of ways on water apply to water skiers as well as other boaters. Simply stated, you must yield to any vessel in your danger zone (the right) and any non-powered vessel. Water skiers must have an observer in the ski boat and cannot waterski from one hour after sunset to sunrise. It is recommended that in congested water, the observer carry a red flag which is held up when the skier falls. This signals other boats that there is a skier in the water. Another flag to watch for is the diver flag. This flag is red in color and has a white diagonal. This indicates a diver is below and all boats should keep clear.

CANADA SHIPPING ACT SECTION

Our waterways are becoming more congested every year. Because of this congestion it is necessary to know the "rules of the road" on the water in order to avoid an accident. If any vessel is in your danger zone then you must yield to it. The danger zone is that area directly in front and in an arc to the right until just over your right shoulder (112 1/2'). A powered boat must yield to a non-powered vessel in every case except when the power boat is navigating a narrow channel.

When two boats meet head on they each alter course to the right. A passing vessel can pass on either side of another vessel, however, the onus is on the passing vessel to do so safely. For more details consult the Boating Safety Guide available at your local Royal Canadian Mounted Police office.

Today's Boating tip: When launching your boat always unplug the trailer lights before allowing the trailer to enter the water. Most trailer lights allow water to enter and when you apply the brakes the hot bulb contacts the cold water causing bulbs to blow.

To save time and embarrassment at the boat launch, practice backing your boat and trailer beforehand. A 20 minute session at a parking lot will win everyone's appreciation at the boat launch later.

Mother soccer players

Mid-season breaks can cause oneself to get lazy during the layover. Taking no chances at the halfway point, coach, Will Paul had his Victoria Junior Soccer Club play against an older ladies team sponsored by Mr. Lube. The older gals team also has a unique roster with the inclusion of deaf players. The Vic. Club girls came out on top with two goal performances by Joy Flomond and Wendy Osborne.

Western Games, native sports get federal grants

The Honourable Iona Campagnolo, Minister of State, Fitness and Amateur Sport, has announced a contribution of up to $150,000 to the Organizing Committee of the 1979 Western Canada Summer Games to be held in Saskatoon from August 12 - 19.

The Fitness and Amateur Sport Branch contribution will apply to transportation costs to Saskatoon of athletes and officials from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia. There will be 25 sports on the calendar and each of the four participating provinces will send a contingent of 420 athletes.

The aim of the 1979 Western Canada Summer Games is to provide Western provinces with a sports competition of the highest calibre, serving as a springboard for future international events such as the 1980 Olympics to be held in Moscow.

The minister also announced a one-year extension to March 31, 1979, of the Native Sport and Recreation Program at a cost of $1.6 million.

The program underwent a critical analysis during 1977, one of the major findings being the need to provide a stable base for the development of sport and recreation among young native people. The emphasis during the remainder of this fiscal year is therefore to be placed on the development of sport and recreation leaders in native communities.

However the Minister added that the Fitness and Amateur Sport Branch is developing a plan whereby this native program is to be phased down, starting with fiscal year 1979-80.

Howell becomes two-time winner of Labatts award

Roy Howell, the Blue Jays' slugging young third baseman, won his second Labatts Player of the Month trophy of the season with a steady performance throughout the month of June to pull far ahead of the field in the voting. The 24 year old left-handed hitter batted .349 for the month and had 13 games of two hits or more to amass a record 78 points in the voting, which is conducted after each Blue Jays game by a panel of accredited media personalities.

Howell finished 31 points ahead of runner-up Rico Carty, who was bothered only by a slow start after recovering from a pulled hamstring muscle early in the month.

Howell also won the Labatts Player of the Month award for April, making him the early favorite to also win the annual Labatts Most Valuable Player Award, as he is well ahead in the overall voting.

Do you remember the TV show a few years back, MY MOTHER THE CAR? Wonder what she would have said about being driven through rainstorm lakes. The above scene was photographed at St. Albert Trail and St. Anne Street about noon yesterday with the driver probably more concerned whether his car will make it through or stall.

Expos - Cuba game postponed

The scheduled August 14, 1978 exhibition baseball game between the Montreal Expos and a Cuban amateur national team has been cancelled because of unresolvable problems.

An exhibition game had been tentatively arranged after the Cuban Government had asked the Honourable Iona Campagnolo, minister of State, Fitness and Amateur Sport, to open negotiations with the Expos and the Office of the Commissioner of Baseball, Mr. Bowie Kuhn.

Discussions with the television networks indicated some hesitation because the game would have followed 10 days of heavy sports telecasting of the 1978 Commonwealth Games in Edmonton.

Management of Montreal Expos also expressed concern that an exhibition game might strain the physical resources of the team should it be engaged in a tight pennant race at that time. A third factor was that ticket sales might have suffered because no provision had been made for a rainout.

However, both parties agreed that negotiations should take place at a later date for the scheduling of a two or three game series at the beginning of the 1979 season.

CBC to set new standards at the Commonwealth Games

The CBC will be setting new standards with their coverage of the XIth Commonwealth Games in Edmonton. For the first time in history all coverage will be done electronically. Film is not used. Instead picture and sound will be transmitted directly to the master control area of the broadcast centre at the Phipps McKinnon building in downtown Edmonton.

Even the cycling road race and the marathon will be covered live, electronically, using 14 cameras, a helicopter and a helicar. The helicar, which is a radically altered Volkswagen, will cover the event at road level and transmit to the helicopter which, because of its evaluation, is able to provide line-of-sight to the main receiving station atop the AGT tower. Using this system will mean entire coverage can be given to the road races - coverage from start to finish. This helicopter system was first used in Montreal at the Olympics.

The video and international sound being fed from the venues will be available to the different broadcast organizations covering the games, including the CBC English and French services. This feed can be transmitted live by the networks with audio addition from their own commentators. Also, using their own equipment, the two Canadian networks will be able to provide additional coverage specially oriented to their specific audiences.

A complete video record of all the events, with international sound, will be kept by the CBC.

Each day a 60 minute televised package of the day's highlights will be produced by the CBC host function and sent to more than 20 Commonwealth countries. This coverage, for many of the Commonwealth countries, will be the only coverage they will have of their athletes' efforts at the games.

CBC audiences to receive results as they happen

A results network system to be used by the CBC at the upcoming Commonwealth Games is the most sophisticated yet to be employed at a sporting event of this type.

The computer controlled system, supplied by Digital Equipment of Canada, is so responsive that within seconds of an event occurring the results are available. They will appear on the video display screens of special enquiry terminals located at the CBC facilities at the venues and in the central control area of the broadcast centre located in the Phipps McKinnon building. The display terminals have a specially designed font which makes it possible to transmit the screen image, as is, direct for on-air telecast.

The system is more than just a results network. If required, it can provide, within seconds, historical data on an athlete or an event. It can even analyse results in relation to existing or previous records. The CBC system which ties into a total network, has been specially designed to ensure that television and radio audiences receive the most up-to-date coverage technically possible.

PLAYGROUNDS

Playgrounds 1978 started on Monday. If you were out of the city at the time of the pre-registration for the playground program you may still register your child by taking him/her to your nearest playground and register with the leader.

Highlight of this week's playground programming will be the Mini Commonwealth Games to be held on Friday at the Lions Park. The Games will be kicked off with torch bearers leading a parade from the parking lot beside the Senior Citizens Centre to Lions Park.

The Games, featuring such skills as racing with a peanut in a spoon, running in a three legged race, a dress up marathon, etc. will commence at 11:30 a.m. and will go to 12:30 p.m. There will be a break for lunch during which time the Les Amis group along with local ethnic groups will entertain the participants.

More skill-testing events will be held after lunch such as hands on ankles walking backwards, after which there will be a closing ceremony with prizes being awarded to the winners.

Sounds like a fun day for the children doesn't it?

DAY CAMPS

The day camps also got underway this week - can't you tell with this rainy weather? We still have a limited number of openings for the 9 - 12 year olds only in the following camps: July 24 - 28, August 8 - 11, and August 14 - 18. If you are interested in registering your child in any of these sessions, please send in a registration form as quickly as possible.

PUBLIC SWIMMING

Public swimming has been cancelled at the Grosvenor Park Pool on Sunday, July 23 until 5 p.m. due to a swim meet being held. Please mark your calendars accordingly.

TENNIS LESSONS

The next session of tennis lessons will commence July 24 and run three lessons per week for two weeks. The fee for students is $8 and for adults $16.00. Also advertised are two Ladies Tennis Leagues for the month of August to be played Tuesday and Thursdays 9 a.m. - 12 noon at the Mission Courts.

The fee for the leagues is $10.00. See our advertisement in this week's Gazette for lesson details and registration information.

JUNIOR TENNIS

Every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1 - 4 p.m. at the Mission Courts is designated as a junior afternoon.

This is intended for juniors who want to meet others to play games or juniors who are interested in the Junior Crest Testing program.

Bill Osborne is on supervision and will help all interested juniors at these times.

COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS

It is felt that there are many areas in our city that could use volunteers who are presently going into Edmonton because they are not aware of the need here.

Mrs. Hazel Sutherland is making a study of a volunteer registry in St. Albert. In order to do this, she is looking for people to sit on her committee, to survey needs, to advertise for volunteers and to set up a central volunteer office.

If you are interested in assisting with this worthwhile project please contact either Helene Durand at 459-6601 or Hazel Sutherland at her home, 458-1193, or at her business number 482-6431.

Award-winning safety film

The award-winning film which deals with the dangers of amputation arising out of careless play around industrial and farm machinery, recreational vehicles and trains is available to schools, parent-teacher groups and other organizations on a complimentary basis.

The film which won the gold medal as the best social documentary at the prestigious New York film and T.V. Festival in November, of 1977, depicts the stories of 12 amputee children who lost limbs in a play environment. The children themselves delivered the safety message - "Play Safe." The film is notable for the six specially-written songs which recount the accidents in a positive, but light hearted treatment.

The War Amputations of Canada, which sponsored the film, has made arrangements for distribution through local sources. Enquiries should be directed to War Amps, 2277 Riverside Dr., Ottawa, Ont., K1H 7X6.

Canine Can Can?

His bloodlines might be muddled but his agility is unquestionable. This acrobatic fellow pranced and posed obligingly for a Gazette photographer over the weekend. His slightly haughty expression implies he might be waiting for a talent scout to sweep him off to Hollywood, the land of million dollar mutt movies, diamond studded bones and starlet spaniels!

GUYS IN GEYSER

Not too long ago we had hot weather, although one wouldn't believe it by the recent thundershowers. On the weekend, these two youths were attempting to stop the water flow at Lacombe Park Lake. Incidentally, swimming is prohibited at the lake.

Calahoo W.I. hears report on provincial conference

By Liz McLeod

Mrs. Pete McLeod, delegate to the W.I. Provincial Convention in Olds, Alberta reported to the Calahoo W.I. at their June meeting.

Three hundred and fifty-three members registered for the convention which had for its theme "Family Development in a Changing World." Mrs. Lynn Fair was her bouncy vivacious self at the Get Acquainted party, aided by Celia Taylor, Mrs. Beryl Ballhorn and Ethel Hammer who presided at the piano. Retiring President Bette Ballhorn of Wetaskiwin welcomed everyone and the evening's program included a report on Africa by Mrs. Pat Young of the ACWW Conference in Nairobi, Kenya, who also showed slides, and by Mary Mercier, Margaret Plaizier, Marion Alexander and Marie Plaizier who gave their impressions on Africa and its peoples.

It was noted that 72% of the people are illiterate and the man is the head of the household. However women are pressing for - in fact they say they will have Safe Water in every Village by 1980. The Alberta Women's Institute is helping them attain this goal. The money poured out of the 84 wishing wells to the tune of $3,624.31 and when this gets matched provincially as Mr. Wally Castor of the International Co-operation Organization told us, we can be proud of Alberta, its government and its people, because of money spent on 230 projects in 66 countries, Alberta has helped 46%.

He told of the need of people to incorporate knowledge in their culture and told of a man in Africa who had 10 children and lived on 1/10th of an acre, and after being shown how, with irrigation, he could get three crops a year by planting wheat, broccoli, cabbage etc., that he could live off the land and because he tried and learned more modern ways, others were learning from his good example.

WESTERN FARM FAMILIES DECREASING

The principal banquet guest speaker was Mrs. Edna Clark of Olds, a retired extension home economist with Alberta Agriculture, and she said the number of farm families in Western Canada will continue to decrease, under economic stress and soaring expectations, and said self sacrifice is essential if a family is to survive.

Farm families must live with the stress of credit obligations, the like of which were unknown to our fathers and grandfathers.

There were workshops on the RCMP - Lady Beware Program with Errol Cruikshank of the Olds Detachment at the helm. Laws of Alberta workshop was headed by extension lawyer Mr. Cal Brandley of Lethbridge. Anyone wanting advice on anything to do with agriculture, Matrimony Property Act, capital gains etc., may phone him by asking your operator for his RITE NUMBER and ask for 3295131 and he said he'd be happy to help anyone in Alberta and this is toll free.

STRESS WORKSHOP

Barbara Stroh of Camrose and Yvonne Kennedy of Olds, both home economists for the Department of Agriculture and they held a workshop on Stress and they pointed out that a sense of self-worth is basic to a person's ability to deal with stressful situations and most men between the ages of 35 and 55 were also considered to be under a great deal of stress.

- Elizabeth Chapman of Vancouver had a panel of experts to deal with pensions wills, estates, banking and insurance.

Then there were workshops on:

- Horticulture with Mr. Godwin and Olds College staff, as well as interior design with Maureen Bolin, DHE Taber.

Time didn't allow each person to attend all workshops but everyone felt that Please Turn to Page 34

In appreciation

Morinville resident and CJA man Bob Arnold was presented with a plaque as a token of appreciation for the help he has volunteered to the Morinville Kinsmen club. The award was given by outgoing President Randy Fulton at the Kinsmen election of officers night held in conjunction with the bike-a-thon and pedal pusher awards.

Riding Club looking for members

Horseback riding -- an activity that can bring back the leisurely pace and high spirits of the past. It is an ideal family sport, lending itself to group outings and picnics in woodsy settings. Those in the St. Albert-Morinville area who are horse owners can take advantage of their enviable opportunity by joining the Bar VW Riding Club, a club that widens horizons for riders.

The club takes overnight trail rides, gymkhanas and stages their own events. The group hopes to have their own grounds in Morinville and is looking for members who share an interest in western riding. There are no age limits on club membership, so even the youngest member of the family can "ride the range" with the rest of the club members. Both married and unmarried people will find the club's activities and social events a "spur" to their enjoyment. If you like western riding and have your own horse, phone Geordie at 939-2874 to join up!

Marketing handbook for cattlemen

Agriculture Canada's livestock division has published an 84-page handbook of quick reference facts to help cattlemen in their day-to-day marketing decisions.

lists telephone numbers farmers across the country can use to get current market prices and other information.

Cattle producers who want a copy of the handbook can get it by contacting the nearest regional livestock division office or by writing to: Livestock Division, Agriculture Canada, Ottawa, Ont., K1A 0C5.

Bon Accord News

By Sadie Allen

Baseball fans were treated to a super weekend of baseball when the Bon Accord Tigers staged their annual two-day tournament.

On Saturday Morinville won over Vimy, Bon Accord squeaked out a close win over Legal in a game that wasn't decided until the last inning was over, Lamont and Rochester played to a close 3-2 score with Lamont winning and in nine innings and Andrew finally came up with a win over Fort Saskatchewan.

In the semi-finals, all nine inning games, Bon Accord won over Morinville and Lamont outscored Andrew. Again the games were close.

The Tigers met Lamont in the final. Pitchers for the first game were Dale Lewis, relieved by Chuck Critchley. Myles Langier and Dean Lewis both went all the way in the second and last games respectively. Home runs were scored by Dale Malan-chen (in the first game), Hugh Allen (in the second) and Tom Carleton (in the third). Congratulations to all the boys.

A special thank you to Tom Carleton and the team who worked hard to organize the event. To all of you who had made other commitments, now is the time to mark the second weekend of July as the date you stay in Bon Accord and support the annual ball tournament.

The Tigers chalked up another win in league play this past week, winning over the Westlock Red Lions in a game played on July 5 at Westlock. On July 19, Morinville will be at Bon Accord for a league game. Come out and cheer for the home team. They appreciate your support.

You are cordially invited to an open house in honour of the Golden Wedding anniversary of George and Edith Carleton on Sunday, July 23, 2 p.m. - 6 p.m., at the home of Bill and Doris Carleton, one mile west and one and one half miles south of Bon Accord. A special invitation has been issued to seniors of the district. Everyone is welcome. No gifts, please.

The Golden Gems wish to thank all those good paper-savers and would appreciate it very much if you would please, please, tie the newspapers securely before bringing them in. A special message to whoever was kind(?) enough to make off with a set of cast iron pans from the paper shed -- Will you please return them?

Congratulations to Don and Lynda Zinnick on the birth of their son, Lee William, 7 lbs. 5 ozs. on June 22 -- proud grandparents are Ruby and Archie Schneider and Ann and Frank Zinnick.

Of the 21 pupils enrolled in grade I at Bon Accord in the class of 66-67, only four of the original class attended school together over the whole period. This year, they graduated from grade XII together at Sturgeon Composite High. These students are Mark Kreway, David Uhaez, Susan Moore and Sandra Budzinski.

The Bon Accord playground opened on July 6 with Sharon Love and Terry Brown in charge. The girls are reserving Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings for pre-schoolers, age four to five, as the small ones sometimes miss out in a crowd of older children. the ones they attended were most interesting and informative.

Alberta Women's Institutes have an original design on a pure linen to towel now, and they sell for $3.50 each, and are available from our provincial office.

Mrs. Zella Pimm's idea of preserving the pictures of Alberta Agriculture in action, blossomed into a pictorial history that was laid out in the handicraft room, in albums from several branches for all to view.

The 643 articles on handicraft shown, were of the usual high calibre and more than 500 visitors admired them.

The winners in these many, varied crafts were - as a group - Kinniburgh WI won the quilting competition, while Mrs. Mary Scarlett of Little Red Deer Dorcas WI won the individual quilting. Kay Saastad of Hythe won the J.P. Coates competition in needlework. Joyce Bussard and Ethel Morrisroe were also J.P. Coates winners.

Total points for a group was won by Bancroft WI while Delbourne, Glendon and Kinniburgh WI's were close follow ups respectively.

Vi Silver of Trochu won the creative writing competition and Kitty Elliott won in the poetry class while Mrs. Grace Mensinger of Grande Prairie won in the non fiction category.

In the handicrafts Mrs. Eve Fell of North Lone Pine WI got the honors in creative stitching; Mrs. Francis Mills - Wooddale WI the best crocheted articles. Mrs. Eileen Ford - Penhold received the special sewing award while Mrs. Francoise Leahy of Kinniburgh WI was best in the weaving section.

It was this convention's pleasure to have two fine ladies from Amersham WI in England - Miss Jean Archer and Mrs. Elsie King, tell us of their group, and with slides, describe Amersham in the 10th and 11th century, and how they are restoring parts of it, along with a modern side. Heide Wilkinson was another English welcome visitor.

The memorial service always pulls at one's heart strings, and it is nice to meet the relatives of these deceased WI members, during the tea that follows the service.

The banquet is always a highlight as is the barbecue, and here we can truthfully say, the staff at Olds College leave no stone unturned, to make these occasions, as well as the daily meals, attractive as well as delicious.

The youngest member attending, was eight month old Jolene, with her mother, Della Fellhauer of Buffalo Coulee WI near Irma, and we

AG. SOCIETY REPORT

At the monthly meeting of the Central Sturgeon Agricultural Society held on July 5, the main discussion centered on the budget for the upcoming year. The most important issue at present is a 50 percent cut in the grant from the Town of Morinville to the Ag. Society. Instead of the $50,000 pledged earlier, the Ag. Society will now receive only $25,000. In order to help accommodate this cutback, the committee plans to forego certain arena renovations which were planned.

A special committee is being formed to set the rates for use of the arena and curling rink this winter. The committee will be made up of a cross-section of community members who use the facilities and will include representatives from the Curling Club, Figure Skating Club, and Hockey.

Also at the meeting, Guy St. Germain announced his resignation as Ag. Society President, effective immediately. His reasons for the above action were based first, on the conflict of interest between Town Council affairs and Ag. Society affairs, and secondly, in the hope of achieving a greater degree of co-operation between the Ag. Society and the Recreation Board.

Robert Foster, Mona Kieser exchange vows

By Florence Vranas

On July 8, Robert Foster and Mona Kieser exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony. The wedding took place at 2 p.m. in the range blossom decorated St. Jean the Baptist R.C. Church in Morinville. Mona the youngest daughter of Herman and Anas Kieser of the Cardiff district while Bob is the only son of Gerald and Avis Foster of Riviere Qui Barre.

Given in marriage by her parents the bride was radiant in a long gown with train; of sheer georgette on polyester satin with appliques of Venice lace and seed pearls. A long trailing veil with matching lace was attached to her bridal headpiece which was trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade of red roses and wore a dainty silver cross with matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

The groom was handsome in a navy suit and white shirt while all his attendants were similarly attired except for blue shirts.

Mother of the bride wore a shrimp coloured floor length gown of Quiana interlock knit with pleated sheer cape, beige accessories and shrimp coloured rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a v-necked sleeveless long gown of black with white centre panel of metallic knit, silver accessories and red and white rose corsage.

Both fathers were an added complement to the bridal party.

The bridesmaids wore long blue striped organza gowns with matching picture hats and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations. The junior bridesmaid, Lana Kieser was dressed identically. The five bridesmaids were Cathy Kluthe, Marie Bok-enfroh, Vicki Foster (sister of the groom), Bernadette Palamarak (bride's cousin), and Marianne Mickelson.

The groom's attendants were Maurice Caron, Kevin Kieser (bride's brother), Paul Dupuis, Garry Short and Wally Besler.

The two flower girls dressed in pink floor length dresses and carrying baskets of flowers were Sandra Kieser and Louise Labonte. The junior bridesmaid and flower girls were all nieces and godchildren of the bride.

Ringbearer Jason Comeau the bride's nephew, was flanked by the flower girls as they entered the church. Ushers for the occasion were John Kieser, the bride's brother and Syd Shier, the groom's cousin.

Rev. Georges Primeau officiated at the marriage with altar boy assistants Laval St. Germaine and Martin Comeau, the bride's nephews.

Nicole St. Germaine, the bride's niece, and Jamie Shier lit the candles for the candle ceremony.

The organist Danny Robinson played for mother and son, Irma and Eddie Bulger's beautiful rendition of Colour My World and also for Eddie's solo. Time in a Bottle. Eddie accompanied his mother with guitar as she sang The Wedding Song, and himself for another solo; If.

After the ceremony some time was spent at the Kieser farmstead.

A beautiful three tiered round wedding cake decorated the head table at the wedding banquet which was held in Morinville for 200 guests. The bride's youngest brother Kevin of Calgary was master of ceremonies for the evening with the toast to the bride proposed by her oldest brother Raymond. The bridesmaid's toast was given by best man Maurice Caron. The supper crowd was entertained by the bride's nephews Rick and Rob La-bonte and Eddie Bulger. Rick and Eddie played guitars and sang while Rob accompanied them on the banjo. Later in the evening the bride and groom and their parents graciously greeted an estimated 600 people who wished the new couple happiness and helped them celebrate their great day. Every one enjoyed a lovely evening at which refreshments were served and dancing to the terrific music of the Satellite Band from Clyde.

Wedding congratulations were received from as far away as Germany.

After a honeymoon to the U.S.A. the newlyweds will take up residence in Morinville.

Horse Hill News

By Esther Wallbank

The final community league meeting, before the summer break, was held on Tuesday, June 27, and was very poorly attended. Hopefully this was due to everyone being busy with haying, etc. due to the lovely weather. We certainly look forward to seeing more out when meetings resume in the fall.

Congratulations to all the students who won the book awards presented by the School Board recently. I don't have a complete list of names, so will just say congratulations and keep up the good work.

On Thursday evening, June 29, despite the threatening storm, a small crowd enjoyed the family night. We managed to get through the wiener roast, and into some ball games before the rain came. It chased everyone indoors for about 10 minutes and then one game resumed (with a few more players). A very enjoyable evening.

Boys baseball has now wound up for this season, with no Horse Hill teams getting past the first round of playoffs. Don McGeachy's bantams won their first game against Villeneuve and then lost their next two to be dropped out.

Terry Bocoock's 14 and unders suffered the same fate at the hands of Riviere Qui Barre. The 12 and under team coached by Ken Black lost to Bon Accord, and Dave and Chris Berg's 10 and unders lost two straight to Morinville.

Thanks to all those that helped to make the season successful by coaching, assisting, scorekeeping, umpiring, and transporting players. Thanks also to Lawrence Omelian, who with assistance from other parents, spent some time working with boys eight and under, giving them a good start for next year.

Another bride to be from the district, Lynn Wray, was guest of honor at a dessert shower on Wednesday, June 28. Hostesses were Joan Clark and Alice Tetz. The surprise shower, with about 25 ladies present, was held at the home of Alice Tetz.

Lynn came over in her jeans to take care of some details about flowers for the wedding. She was very unsuspecting as the cars were all well hidden. Obviously the secret had been well

By Florence Vranas
Congratulations to 13 year old Jeff Clark who won first place and set a new record for Sturgeon in the 100 yard dash, 12.9 seconds, at the Sturgeon School Division Track Meet held just before the school term ended. The Regional Track Meet which followed in Morinville saw him place first in his class for the 200 yard dash. Keep up the good work Jeff!

A hearty welcome to Barbara Schultz (mother of Janet Clark) who has recently moved into Cardiff. We hope you will like it here Barbara.

Some July 1 weekend holidayers were: Harold, Helen and Darryl Robinson who were at Edmonton Beach. Darryl had the misfortune of losing the tip of a finger in a biking accident but is up and around and doing well. Chris, Gwen, Colleen, Ken and Jenny Knoll also spent this time at a lake.

Brian Grant, Peter Mickelson and Ryan Vranas went to the mountains and biked eight miles to fish at Jack Lake. No fish, but lots of enjoyment.

Ken, Helen, Glen and Tammy Witter attended Ken's Grandmother Ella Fox's 80th birthday celebration at Wetaskiwin. Recent visitors of Ken and Helen's were: Ken's two sisters, Shirley and Sheila of Nanaimo, B.C. Also his Aunt and Uncle Clarence and Elma Toy of Kelowna.

Chris and Florence Vranas spent a happy 25th anniversary while on holidays to the mountains, the Cariboo country in B.C., the Bennett Dam and the Peace River district.

A surprise 25th wedding anniversary party was held recently for Sam and Dorothy Brenton of Fort Saskatchewan. Dorothy's family name was Boshier and she attended Rose Ridge School as a young girl. Rose Ridge was just three miles south of Cardiff. About 30 people, family, friends and some former school mates, presented the couple with a lovely pole lamp and purse to commemorate the happy occasion.

A good showing of Arts and Crafts from Cardiff were presented at the Morinville Frontier Daze celebrations.

The Cardiff Community Club has recessed for the month of July and August following the last meeting which was held at the home of Violet Weiss. A family barbecue for members is planned for shortly before the new school term begins. Members will be notified.

Calvin Vollrath travelled to Carrot River, Saskatchewan; the past weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Art Vollrath, to participate in the Carrot River Old Time Fiddlers Contest which is said to offer the biggest prize money in Canada.

Calvin and five others were chosen in the eliminations to compete in the championship class on July 8. First prize was won by Eleanore Townsend, wife of the well known fiddler, Graham Townsend. Calvin took second place winning a trophy and a six hundred dollar cheque. Once more, congratulations Calvin!

Bernard and Dena Haneke of South Dakota are currently visiting family and friends of the district. Most of their children are with them getting to know their cousins. Dena was formerly from Cardiff.

Calahoo News

By Liz McLeod
When the Calahoo Sports Association held their $1,000 draw in June, there was jubilation when once again it was won locally.

Erwin and Phyllis Rothweiller of R.R. #1 Calahoo, came out victorious, when their ticket was the final one drawn out of the barrel and the winner of the $1,000.

It was also a very excited Liz McLeod, who, when telephoned by Brenda Coyes learned she was the second last ticket in the barrel and the winner of the $50.00.

The Stony Stonehouse's of Onoway were $25 winners, being the first name drawn.

W.I. MEETING

Fifteen members attended the June 27 meeting of the Calahoo Women's Institute when Mrs. Leona Augustin from Freeport, Maine was a special guest. Mrs. Red Wheatley, president, also welcomed the Albrecht's daughter Leona to the meeting. Following the minutes and treasurer's report Mrs. Dalheim reported on the forthcoming Horticultural Show and asked that place cards be ordered.

Mrs. Dalheim was also chosen to take charge of arrangements for the Klondike Days project when the WI will serve home baking at the AWI Tea room in the afternoon and until 9 p.m. two days. The tea room is between the Sportex Building and the Displays Building.

Mrs. R. Schermund was approached to find out if the WI would cater to an October wedding and a vote will be taken.

The Calahoo group received a Certificate of Merit from the Sturgeon Hospital Ladies Auxiliary and their spring tea held recently, which will be mounted in the Calahoo WI scrapbook for safekeeping. Many members helped the Auxiliary by doing sewing and mending for the hospital and were rewarded by the invitation to the tea and the Certificate.

Elsie Berry read a letter and report sheet from the Cancer Society which the group supports with an annual donation. A second letter from the Supreme Lodge - Order of the Royal Purple thanked the WI for their donation to the Deaf Detection program.

Delegate Liz McLeod reported on the Provincial Convention (see elsewhere).

Visitor Mrs. Augustin won the door prize, brought by Madeline Brown.

During lunch hour, of which Mrs. J. Stephanie Shenfield was hostess, four birthday recipients were honored: Mrs. Betty Albrecht, Mrs. Laura Campbell, Mrs. Alice Schermund and Mrs. Addie Thatcher.

After summer recess, the WI will meet again September 26, with the roll call of Bring a piece of Handicraft and the topic will be a Demonstration of Cake Decorating.

In the meantime the group will serve lunch at K-Days July 20 and 26 and on August 16 will hold their horticulture show with the judge - Mr. Tony Jansen from Edmonton.

Raffle nets uniforms for RQB team

By Liz McLeod
When the Beaver ball team at Riviere Qui Barre won the league championship, defeating Bon Accord in the playoffs, coach Dwayne Granger and interested parents decided it was time to get uniforms. A raffle was organized with draws made on June 28 and more than enough money was raised to outfit the team in new red and white uniforms.

The boys will get in some extra practice and an exhibition game before entering the provincial playdowns.

Winning tickets were drawn at Camilla School by Principal Vern King who pulled Liz McLeod's ticket for first prize - camping equipment. Diane Doerksen was asked to draw the second prize ticket which went to Gilbert Perrott, Gilbert won two weiner pigs or $50 cash, a prize donated to the ball team by Phillip and Cathy DeRudder.

Liz bought her ticket from Audrey Steinkampf and said at the time that the camping gear would be great for her daughter, Sharon McKinnon who was going camping on the long weekend. An excited Sharon got the backpack with bed roll, pup tent, canteen and cooking utensils on June 28.

The Beavers will head into the provincials with both new uniforms and solid fan support from the Riviere Qui Barre community.

When oink turns to ouch, out comes the ointment

By Barbara S. Moffet
National Geographic

If cows and pigs could talk, some of them would give their owners an earful of complaints--skinned knees, chapped udders, pesky flies, and just plain boredom.

Realizing that a contented, comfortable animal is a more productive one, some farmers are treating their herds' aches and pains with an array of ointments and medical aids.

By now a lot of farm animals know that with this summer's flies, gnats, ticks and lice will come bug sprays and powders.

COW PATCH

And a cow suffering from pinkeye might expect to wear an eye patch for a few days. The patch, which fits completely over the cow's eye, is designed to hold medication in place and protect the eye from sunlight, wind, dust, insects, and other irritants.

Sore udder, an age-old problem for dairy cattle exposed to the elements, can be treated with a range of products -- udder ointment, udder salve, udder cream, udder balm, or udder liniment.

For newborn pigs nursing on the rough floor of a sow pen there is another aid -- coating for their skinned knees, the National Geographic Society says.

"Little pigs' skin is pretty tender," said Clarence Utley, an employee of a company that sells animal products. He said that the coating, which is "nothing more than gasket glue," protects the piglets' knees from infection that could result in swollen joints.

While suckling pigs are suffering from skinned knees, their mother might be in even greater pain. She can be lacerated by her babies' needle-sharp teeth. In that case a farmer might get out his "pig tooth nipper," Utley said, and cut the piglets' teeth.

Utley, who heads a team manning an animal health "hotline," says farmers call in with questions about everything from diarrhea -- which often kills baby pigs -- to getting rid of parasites.

What can a farmer do with a herd of restless hogs? Give them a bath, suggests Dr. O. M. Hale of the University of Georgia's Coastal Plain Experiment Station. Dr. Hale has found that sows that are hosed down regularly appear happier than their grimmer pals.

CLEAN AS A PIG

"Contrary to a popular concept, hogs are clean animals when given a chance," Dr. Hale said. "The sows we bathe are more comfortable, sleep more, rest more, and appear to be more content."

Dr. Hale's research also is aimed at finding out whether pregnant sows, usually confined in small pens, benefit from a daily exercise regimen -- 15 minutes on a treadmill.

"Pigs are a lot like people," he said. "They don't want to exercise, but they are glad after they have."

At Utah State University pregnant cows also are "jogging" one to six miles a day in a mechanical exerciser. Tests so far have shown that the younger dairy cattle that exercise have less trouble bearing calves and are more efficient at producing milk than cows that do nothing but stand around all day in a small enclosure.

The exerciser keeps the cattle walking as fast as 3½ miles an hour, a brisk pace for a cow, especially a pregnant one.

HUNGRY AGAIN?

... Getting pushed around by a penful of piglets is not any mother's idea of paradise. It can even be painful. Baby pigs' teeth are so sharp that they sometimes have to be clipped to avoid injuring the mother. Piglets can suffer, too, when their knees scrape on aluminum floors of some modern barns.

Cattlemen seeking meeting with Cabinet

The Canadian Cattlemen's Association is seeking an urgent meeting with members of the Federal Cabinet to discuss the matter of Canadian import quotas on offshore beef following relaxation of U.S. quotas.

The Cattlemen intend explaining to Cabinet that any relaxation of import quotas at this time will have very little effect on beef supplies but will have a very negative impact on cattle producers who are just now considering their future production plans. This negative psychology will mean that many producers will continue to sell down their cow herds with the consequent reduction in beef supplies two years from now.

Stewart Brown, president of the Association, who will head the delegation to Ottawa, points out that only four months ago Ministers Horner and Whelan committed the Government to a long term beef import policy for Canada. Though Cattlemen would have preferred a legislated Beef Import Act, they accepted Government assurances that quota levels would be fair and that they would take into account the very serious losses incurred by cattlemen over the last four years.

While cattle prices have risen quite sharply over the last few months, says Brown, the Government must recognize that the large majority of cattle producers have not enjoyed these prices as most of their cattle are sold in the fall of the year. In addition, they must be aware of the fact that for 36 months beef prices have lagged well behind the Consumer Price Index and are only now catching up with other consumer items.

Any attempt by Government to force down beef prices at this point by increasing imports is not only doomed to failure but will also mean that cattlemen will lose whatever faith they still had in the Government's understanding of their industry, concluded Brown.

Police artists draw criminals into cells

By Donald J. Frederick
National Geographic News
WASHINGTON - Police are drawing their own conclusions these days, and the results are some dead ringers for criminals on the wanted list.

Sketches made by police artists after talking to witnesses have helped put hundreds of bad guys behind bars. As a result, many law enforcement people have come to regard a good drawing of a suspect not only as an investigative tool, but as a hard piece of evidence.

So convincing are some sketches that the mere sight of them has helped convict criminals, the National Geographic Society reports.

MISTAKEN FOR PHOTOGRAPH

Brought to police headquarters in Washington, D.C., for questioning, a man blurted out, "Who put my picture on the wall?" before realizing his likeness was part of a rogue's gallery of the area's most wanted suspects. "How did you take my photograph?" cried another suspect in disbelief, after being confronted with a realistic drawing done by an FBI artist.

A good witness is as important to the police artist as the shapely model is to the struggling genius in the garret studio.

What makes a good witness? Donald G. Cherry, police artist in the District of Columbia, thinks it's not only the person with a good memory, but the individual with whom he can establish easy rapport during an interview. "It's the person open to suggestion, who can let the mind wander a little, so it can produce those fleeting memories of features, expressions, affectations," he says.

Most police artists agree that children generally make good witnesses. "They aren't as inhibited in their descriptions as adults and often have a more critical sense of detail," notes Fernando G. Ponce of the Los Angeles Police Department.

Officer Ponce is the only police artist in the country who also does sculptures. The busts are photographed from different angles and the pictures distributed to the cop on the beat. The different views are often successful in turning up an identification when simple frontal facial sketches have failed.

SKETCHED HIMSELF

No matter how good the work of art, a bad witness can quickly demote the police artist from hero to goat.

Called to the scene of an alleged crime, Officer Cherry quickly began drawing a composite given by a rather incoherent witness. A detective colleague beckoned him aside and directed his attention to the sketch. "You're drawing yourself," he pointed out.

"I was so engrossed that I didn't notice," says Officer Cherry. "Some people are either such poor liars or so far under the influence, they simply describe the first person they can focus on."

Not all police art involves drawings of people. Sketches have been turned out on everything from elaborate pieces of jewellery to an unusual crowbar used in a crime.

In one case, a witness's description of a cluttered city block was transformed into an aerial view by an imaginative artist. The drawing enabled a police helicopter to pinpoint the exact scene of the crime.

SUBSCRIBERS !!

The distribution of our newspaper is handled in three ways: on news-stands, through the mail, and by our team of carriers.

The vast majority of our readers prefer receiving the Gazette from our carriers, and it is their job to ensure that you get the Gazette as early as possible every Wednesday, whatever the weather.

Lately, the most difficult part of the carriers job has been collecting from customers. People, now are more on the go, and therefore more difficult to catch at home.

We shouldn't overlook the problems caused by holidays and moving. It is difficult to remember money owed to a carrier.

For greater convenience to all, we are hoping that our readers will take this opportunity to subscribe to the Gazette on a yearly basis.

You won't have to worry about having change on hand, or the carrier bothering you at inopportune moments. The carrier will save time working his or her route, therefore affording them more time with their friends, family and personal activities. The carrier will still receive full creditation for the delivery (.07¢ per paper delivered). If you are moving or taking holidays, just give us a call, and the necessary adjustments will be made (subscription extension, transfer, etc.).

If you move away, you can keep up on local news through the mail by having your paper follow you to your new address.

Simply fill in the coupon below and mail it to the Gazette, or drop by our office at 31 Perron Street.

Thank You
From all of us at the Gazette.
